COUNTY FARMS NEED MORE THAN 8,000 WORKERS

More than 8,000 workers will be needed on the 1,200 larger farms of Adams county during the peak harvest season from July through September, Herbert W. Miller, emergency farm labor field agent, told members of the EFL advisory committee at a meeting in the Farm Labor office Thursday evening.

Basing his report on a compilation of reports of county farmers collected by the Agriculture Adjustment Association office, Miller said there are 529 full time employees working on the 1,200 farms that more than one man to operate. Only 419 extra helpers were needed during the first three months of the year. Maximum labor needs during April, May and June were listed as 1,467; July through September at 8,071 in the maximum demand period and during October through December 3,147, he reported.

Most of the labor will be provided by the youngsters of the county below the age of 17, the committee felt. At the same time the committee made sure that none of the youngsters would be expected to do heavy work about the farms and orchards not suited to their strength. Proper supervision of the youngsters will be provided under the direction of County Agent M. T. Hartman, it was reported.

Continuous Need

Because most of the 17-year-old youngsters who comprised the backbone of last summer's labor supply have been called into industry or into the armed forces, most of the labor will have to come from the younger children, it was stated. For that reason certain safeguards are being set up to prevent any of the children from being overworked. Safety measures and proper methods of working will be taught by supervisors on the various farms.

County Agent Hartman stressed the uniform need for workers starting at the present time. He pointed out that the harvesting of peas, already underway, will be followed by thinning peaches, harvest of sour cherries, beans, tomatoes, peaches and apples. The children and grown-ups can obtain employment throughout the summer months, if they desire.

Patriotic Service

Possibility of establishing work camps at two sites in the county were discussed and Field Agent Miller, County Agent Hartman and a representative from States College today were attempting to secure the use of the sites, one near Gettysburg and the other in the northwestern part of the county.

Just what type of labor would be stationed at the camps was still unknown, with State College officials doubting any possibility of obtaining labor from the Bahamas or other sections for the county. A thorough-going attempt to secure some help from city areas and from vacationists will be made, it was decided.

Despite all efforts, not enough help will be secured from outside the county to take care of the county harvests, the committee felt. It will be the patriotic duty of countians, women and younger children and all others who can, to pitch in and help produce food for victory, the committee declared. Only in that way will the harvest be secured.

Food and Munitions

There is as much need for food as there is for munitions, one member of the committee pointed out.

M. T. Hartman, Jennings B. Collins, and Mr. Miller were appointed by Committee Chairman Robert A. Myers to act as a publicity committee to inform countians on the need for farm help.

Of the 3,600 farms in the county, the committee found only 1,200 will need extra help. Most of the 1,200 are engaged in growing crops that need many extra helpers to harvest, such as fruit, beans, peas and the like.

ISSUE CALL FOR "BROWN PAPER"

Adams county's salvage committees were swinging into action today to help solve the nation's latest need—for brown paper.

Nearly every committee has plans underway for an intensive drive to collect all types of brown paper, especially corrugated boxes and corrugated packing sheets.

An appeal has been made by O. H. Benson, chairman of the county salvage committee to every resident of the county to scour his home or business place for the brown paper and place it in bales for salvage committees to pick up this month. Any type of brown paper or cardboard used for packing is needed, he said.

While brown paper was given as the most immediate need of the month, the salvage committees were continuing to collect all manner of scrap—from cast iron to nylon stockings.

The Biglerville PFA youngsters under the direction of Cecil Snyder have completed their second annual scrap drive, Mr. Benson said. The PFA collected approximately the same amount this year as last, 23 tons.

PFA members and Boy Scouts in Benderville under the direction of Dale Crum collected 35 tons of scrap during the recent spring collection in the Benderville area, it was reported.

COUNTY C-D UNIT SOLVES AIR RAID TEST PROBLEMS

Everything from horses to the Western Maryland telegraph system was used—on paper—Thursday night by the various control centers of the Adams county Civilian Defense corps as the centers took part in a state wide air raid drill.

Each center was asked to work out an assigned problem which assumed all telephone communications in their particular community had been wiped out by bombs. A number of centers were informed also of bomb damage in their respective communities which would be sufficiently great to cause the center to ask for help from other sections of the county and state.

The county control center sent its message out by telegraph to Harrisburg asking fire engines, ambulances and doctors to help in the county.

Study Radio Hookup

One control center which found from its problem that not only were telephone communications wiped out but that the roads surrounding it had been bombed, located a fast tractor in its section and planned to send its message to the county control center at Gettysburg by tractor driving over the countryside.

Others planned to use horse and buggy or motorbike transportation. One control center planned to use the Western Maryland telegraph system by sending a messenger to the nearest railroad station.

In each problem the control center officials had to determine exactly where they would find the horse or other equipment needed and who would use the equipment.

If plans of the county council work out however, the problem caused by failure of the telephone system would be much simpler. Members of the county defense staff have been working for the last week in an effort to place two-way short wave radio sets in each of the control centers in the county. Plans are well underway, it was stated, although final results are still in doubt.

10-TON TRUCK BREAKS BRIDGE

The Adams county commissioners Thursday inspected damage done to the steel and wood bridge over Marsh creek at Rothaupt's mill Wednesday evening when a truck owned by Gingell Brothers, Zora, and loaded with about ten ton of stone went through the wooden flooring of the bridge.

A 16-foot section of the bridge floor was broken and steel girders under the section were snapped by the strain. The commissioners expected to have the repair work completed within a week. In the meantime the bridge was closed to traffic.

Lewis McClean, Zora, driver of the truck, escaped injury. No estimate was available on the damage to the vehicle which was pulled from the bridge floor with the help of several other Gingell trucks and a garage tow truck.

The commissioners have filed certified copies of amounts turned over to property holders along the line of the Western Maryland railroad for damage done by the railroad's relocation between Gulden's and Brush Run. The copies were filed with the state so that the county can recover 80 per cent of the amount it paid out. Of the damages, 50 per cent will be paid by the railroad, 30 per cent by the state highway department and 20 per cent by the county.

RED CROSS FUND AT $21,000 GOAL

A number of anonymous contributions this morning completed the $4 needed to push the drive to its conclusion.

MUSSOLINI'S "MALTA" IS BOMBARDED INTO DEVASTATING DEFEAT

Allied Bombers Fly Almost "Nose To Tail" In Final Blasting of Italian Mediterranean Outpost; Swarms of Planes Blacken Skies; Yanks In Spearhead

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, June 11 (AP)—Pantelleria surrendered unconditionally today after 19 days of bombardment capped by the most concentrated Allied aerial attack of the war.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's forces promptly moved ashore on that Italian outpost in the Sicilian Straits, breaking the ring of fortified Axis islands guarding southern Europe from invasion.

The fall of Pantelleria—three years and one day after Italy entered the war—was announced in a special communique.

Greatest Allied Air Attack of War

The climactic raids on Pantelleria yesterday and last night were described here as the greatest Allied air attack of the war in point of bomb tonnage dropped on a target of similar size.

The island, 32 square miles in area and formed by a long dead volcano, lies 45 miles east of Cap Bon, Tunisia, about 60 miles by air south of Sicily and 220 miles by air from the toe of the Italian boot.

The special headquarters communique said:

"The island of Pantelleria today surrendered and is being occupied by Allied forces.

"This surrender is the result of a series of continuous and intense air bombardments supported by naval bombardments. Two previous offers (summons) to surrender made to the commander were ignored."

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Commander of Camp Colt, on the Gettysburg Battlefield, during the first World War, who won his third consecutive major victory in the African theatre of war with the surrender of the Axis garrison on Pantelleria Island this morning.

Roosevelt Urges Italians To Oust Mussolini, Save Nation

Washington, June 11 (AP)—President Roosevelt declared today that the surrender of Pantelleria was very good news and at the same time he appealed indirectly but strongly to Italy to get out of the war.

He told a press conference that the United Nations could assure the Italian people the opportunity of choosing the kind of non-Nazi, non-Fascist government they want established after Fascism has been put down, and the Germans have been driven from their territory.

To Restore Italy

It is the hope and intention of the United Nations, Mr. Roosevelt said, that Italy be restored to nationhood and take her place as a respected member of the European family of nations.

The chief executive made it obvious that he considered Mussolini and his aides responsible for the position of Italy in the war, rather than the Italian people. He said the present effects of the Anglo-American campaign against Italy was the inevitable result of the ruthless course Mussolini had followed in the past few years. In forming a military alliance with Germany, Mr. Roosevelt declared, Mussolini betrayed his own country in a struggle for personal power and aggrandisement.

"Stab in Back"

Mussolini's acts were not those of the Italian people, he went on, but a succession of acts committed by the Duce's personal, Fascist regime. The people of the country, he said, are largely devoted to peace.

Mussolini's whole policy was ill (Please Turn to Page 2)

Expect Lampedusa To Surrender

London, June 11 (AP)—British military observers said today they expected the surrender of the Italian island of Lampedusa to follow the fall of Pantelleria.

Lampedusa, 80 miles south of Pantelleria, was raided by a British scouting party earlier this week. It is isolated and probably is short of provisions.

8,000 on Isle

(British military observers in London estimated about 8,000 men made up the garrison, chiefly artillery crews, air force personnel and ground staffs.)

Fly White Flag

A white flag was displayed on Hill 74 in the northern part of the island, it was announced early this morning. This information was conveyed immediately to the commander of the Allied forces on the African mainland and steps toward occupying the island were begun immediately.

Many hundreds of Allied planes darkened the sky yesterday.

Thirty-seven enemy fighters were shot down in combat during the attack and two others were destroyed over the Tyrrhenian sea, north of Sicily. From all operations, six Allied aircraft failed to return.

This was the first time in the Mediterranean that air power almost alone had knocked out the enemy and it forced the surrender of an important outpost without the landing of a single ground soldier.

Look To Invasion

The capitulation of Pantelleria's dazed and battered garrison came little more than seven months after AEF landing barges grounded on the beaches of French Morocco and Algeria.

The movement toward the continent gave added point to a declaration by Prime Minister Churchill in the British House of Commons Tuesday: "It is evident that amphibious operations of a peculiar complexity and hazard on a large scale are approaching."

(The Italian high command was silent on its loss. The regular Italian communique, broadcast from Rome and recorded by The Associated Press about 30 minutes before Pantelleria yielded, said the garrison, "although hammered by the pounding of about 1,000 enemy planes, again made no reply to a further request of surrender." Later broadcasts repeated that announcement.)

Japs Ended Fighting On Attu By Taking Own Lives May 30

By WILLIAM L. WORDEN
Cories Lake, Attu, May 30 (Delayed) (AP)—On this bloody Memorial Day, which brought annihilation of the last organized enemy resistance on Attu, the mass of surviving Japanese killed themselves with hand grenades rather than surrender.

Surprised yesterday by a desperate enemy counterattack that brought temporary gains, the Americans rallied to rout the Japanese and slaughter them by hundreds. The fighting ended today.

The final Japanese assault began yesterday at 4 a. m. A madly yelling mob of Japanese army and navy personnel and civilians—apparently every man who could be mustered into action in the Attu village sector—rushed American positions lustrated, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, by his declaration of war against France and Britain.

Roosevelt

Harking back to the day three years ago when Italy took this step, the President recalled that he had termed it then a stab in the back. The Allies, he said, have no choice but to pursue the war against Italy and Mussolini until they have achieved complete victory.

Blames Mussolini
Only when the Germans have been driven out and Fascism abolished will the good judgment of the Italian people make itself evident, he said.

He went on, then, to discuss Mussolini, Italy, and the possibilities for setting up a non-Fascist government after victory, referring to notes which he said he had started to write out some time ago.

Now seems to be an opportune time, he added, to say something through the press and radio to the people of Italy and remind them that the attacks on them were the result of the course of action Mussolini had chosen.

CHICAGO CLUB SETS HOT CLIP IN AMERICAN

By JUDSON BAILEY
The Associated Press

The middle of the American league standings is as jammed as the middle of Times Square on a Saturday night.

There are four clubs that can't play a game without changing their positions, or sometimes can't even remain idle without moving.

In two days the Detroit Tigers have dropped from third to sixth, the Chicago White Sox have risen from fifth to third, the Boston Red Sox have advanced from seventh to fifth and on Wednesday the Philadelphia Athletics took temporary possession of third place without even playing.

Sox Set Pace

Jimmy Dykes' White Sox have been responsible for much of this disorder by winning nine of their last 12 games and parading right up the standings from seventh to their present position in third place, four games back of the New York Yankees and one and a half behind the second place Washington Senators.

The Sox, once known for their feeble hitting, walloped the Detroit Tigers yesterday 11-5 with a 17-hit offensive that started with four runs in the first inning and finished with five in the ninth.

The Yankees meanwhile padded the Athletics' 8-2 with clusters of hits to boost Spud Chandler to his sixth victory and hand Jesse Flores, the rookie sensation who won seven successive games, his third setback in a row.

The Senators lost ground and a 2-0 decision at Boston as Oscar Gribble pitched three-hit ball for his sixth success against one defeat. Pete Fox hit the only home run of the day for the Red Sox' first score.

Browns Beat Indians

The last-place St. Louis Browns narrowed the gap at the bottom of the standings by beating the Cleveland Indians again 2-1 in a night game and moved within two games of the seventh place Indians.

National league activity yesterday was limited to two games in which both the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers triumphed.

The Cardinals conquered the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-0 in a night game viewed by 13,356 fans with Lefty Max Lanier taking charge of the show. He pitched six-hit ball, struck out nine and himself drove in the Redbirds' first two runs with a single in the second inning.

Brooklyn had to battle from behind in the ninth inning to win its game 4-3 from the Boston Braves and it was Max Macon who received credit for the victory, although Big Bobo Newsom pitched four-hit ball and fanned seven before he had to be relieved in the ninth.

Manager Leo Durocher returned to shortstop for the Dodgers for the first time since September 28, 1941, and drove in one of Brooklyn's runs with a single. Altogether Brooklyn made 14 hits, but Al Javery kept them spaced until the ninth, when he was batted out as the Dodgers bunched four singles.

Novikoff Says He Needs A Few Homers

Chicago, June 11 (AP)—Lou Novikoff thinks belting four or five home runs in a row would start him off on a blistering hitting streak for the Chicago Cubs.

The Cub outfielder who is hitting .293 for 14 games and has hit safely consecutively in his last eight, driving in seven runs, explained:

"I am pushing the ball instead of getting any snap into it. . . . The real Novikoff is not hitting unless the ball goes to left or left center. . . . Why I ain't cuttin' like I should? . . . I don't know, but as soon as I do, I'll start climbin' . . . Tell you what. . . . Four or five homers might start me off."

Shatter Streaks Of Navy Ball Clubs

Chicago, June 11 (AP)—Winning streaks of two Navy baseball teams ended yesterday, the Great Lakes club after 13 consecutive victories and Navy Pier after a dozen triumphs.

The Cincinnati Reds gave Great Lakes its first defeat of the season, winning 6 to 4. Lt. Mickey Cochran, the Sailors manager, knocked in two runs in the ninth inning with a pinch single, but the rally fell short.

Len Perme, formerly with the Chicago White Sox, allowed the Bendas of the Midwest Semipro Baseball league only six hits, but his Navy Pier mates got only seven and lost, 4 to 4.

HOSPITAL CONFERENCE

Pittsburgh, June 11 (AP)—A wartime conference of the Catholic Hospital association opened here today with hundreds of delegates attending from all sections of the United States and from Canada.

Warm Fight For Third In Eastern

(By The Associated Press)

Unless the weather man intrudes again, Elmira and Binghamton will reach a settlement on third place in the Eastern league tonight and quit passing the berth back and forth.

The current exchange started Wednesday when the rampaging Pioneers counted their eighth win in 10 starts and slid into third place by four percentage points. Hartford was the hapless collaborator in this coup.

The Laurels returned as villains last night, however, and chopped off Elmira's winning string at four games with a thumping 8 to 0 victory. The weather-idle Triplets resumed third place, thereby, without swinging a bat. All other games were postponed.

ROUNDUP SPORTS

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 11 (AP)—Saying it with figures. . . . Up to a week ago today, American league baseball clubs had played 29 extra-inning games and had 57 contests decided by one run. . . . A year ago on the same date there had been nine over-time games and 37 one-run affairs.

Which shows you what happens when 154 guys, most of whom can hit, go into the armed forces. . . . It costs $11 to make a saliva test of a horse at the Detroit fair grounds, and with 567 races on the schedule, the season's bill will run to $6,336 to test each winner. . . . Biggest trotting horse transaction in some time took place recently when C. H. Wilkinson of Loganport, Ind., paid Thomas B. Graney of Sparkill, N. Y., $15,000 for Austin Hanover, a colt now held at 6-1 in the Hambletonian future books.

They'll toss their shots tonight for an expected crowd of 15,000 and a gaudy gate of $75,000 or so. From this corner, it looks like Swingin' Sammy will wind up on top in a tussle so close that the bookmakers, after days of offering the old army game odds of five-to-six-and-take-your-pick have just veered enough to make Angott a flat 5 to 6 favorite.

ACTION ACTION

Mike Bellois, former featherweight champ who has been working in a Niagara Falls defense plant, decided recently to return to the ring. . . . He started training at Stillman's Tuesday and yesterday he demanded of Manager Eddie Walker: "Got anything lined up for me?"

"No," admitted Eddie, "but get up on that window sill and stay there."

Mike obeyed and as the various matchmakers turned up to watch the workouts, Walker pointed him out and asked for bids. . . . Bellois will fight at Mac Arthur stadium in Brooklyn next week.

SUGGESTION BOX

The United States Golf association museum recently acquired one of the Red Cross medals that were used as prizes in the 1917-18 "Liberty" tournaments on July 4. It was won by Joseph I. Melanson at Swampscott, Mass., in 1917 and was donated by his son, who lives in Wolfeboro, N. H., after the USGA had searched several years for one of the medals. . . . There must be a good many more still lying around, so how about putting them back into circulation at this year's July 4 Red Cross tournaments—either as special prizes or at War Bond auctions?

CLEANING THE CUFF

The annual New York Giants-All Stars grid game hasn't been made off officially, but no plans have been made for staging it, either. . . . Longest major league batting streak 20 years ago was 25 straight games by Charley Grimm of Pittsburgh. . . . Dain Clay, the outfielder the Phillies got in that trade with the Cards, once threw a ball from home plate in the Houston ball park over the right field wall 322 feet away. Bucky Harris will be happy if he can hit 'em that far. . . . When Manager Al Weill invited Lew Hanbury, the Washington lightweight, to come up for tonight's Armstrong-Angott fight, he got a wire in reply: "Mom and pop will take the train with Lew."

The legal bureau of the Army is known as the Judge Advocate General's Department.

SCRIBE PICKS ARMSTRONG TO BOW TO ANGOTT

By SID FEDER

New York, June 11 (AP)—The laughable lightweight frolics—the fight game's answer to the padded cell industry—comes a bit closer to getting its kinks straightened out tonight when Henry Armstrong and Sammy Angott tangle in a ten-rounder in Madison Square Garden.

There was a time in the past, you remember, when the lightweights really did know where they were going. In fact, the two comeback kids who collide tonight were undisputed 135-pound bosses themselves at one time.

But because of recent antics that resembled a guy holding out for a scotch in a bourbon factory, the whole thing has become about as clear as doubletalk in braille. So, now you have New York recognizing Bobcat Bob Montgomery since he took all the bounce out of Bouncing Beau Jack; the National Boxing association "blessing" on one since Angott retired "permanently" for a couple of months—and patient old Gus Q. Fan wondering when he gets off the merry-go-round.

But with Henry the hammer and swarthy Sammy setting off their firecrackers tonight, you'll finally be able to get some of the mush-rooms cleared away so that you can at least see the steak underneath—if you have enough imagination, of course. For, which ever one of the ex-champs doesn't have to be carried out when the shooting is over some time after 10 p. m. (EWT) will probably get a shot at Bobcat Bob in one of the local ball parks this summer. And that should come close to ironing out a bit of wet-weather that is "most amazin' and confusin'."

YORK SPANKED BY LANCASTER

(By The Associated Press)

Whether Lancaster is improving or York needs better pitching, Lancaster is the club to watch in the Interstate league these days.

The Red Roses won again from the third-place York club, 5 to 2, last night, a second inning walk by Holowka and four passes by his successor, Nariaka, in the seventh, accounting for three of the Lancaster scores.

It was a walk, too, by Al (Rip) Collins, that forced in the winning run for Wilmington in the ninth inning of an opener that was scheduled for seven innings. The league-leading Blue Rocks triumphed, 3-2, over Trenton and went on to take the second game, 6-4.

Hagerstown also was a double winner, by scores of 12-4 and 10-4 over last place Allentown despite three home runs by George Kressley, Allentown outfielder, in three successive times at bat.

York at Allentown.

Fathers' Chances Of Being Drafted Are Growing Slim

By CHARLES MOLONY

Washington, June 11 (AP)—A draft-age father's chances of being inducted into the armed forces before next year appeared Thursday to be about 17 out of 100.

And the chances next year may be even lower unless heavy casualties require unexpectedly large replacements.

Farmer fathers generally will be deferred for occupational reasons, but the outlook for others sums up like this on the basis of latest War Manpower commission - Selective service figures:

Drafting of those with children born before last September 15 is not expected to begin before August 1, and even if it starts then it is unlikely to become general and heavy for another month at least.

There are nearly 6,000,000 draft age (non-farm) fathers—only about 4,000,000 of them at most could be expected to be physically acceptable—and the armed services will take in but about 1,500,000 men in all between Aug. 1 and Jan. 1, 1944.

Toward making up this 1,500,000, the services get around 70,000 of the 100,000 becoming 18 years old each month, and should net 350,000 from this source from August on, not counting the youths past 18 who were deferred to the end of the school year.

At least 150,000 more inductees will

An Evening Thought

There is nothing more to be esteemed than a manly firmness and decision of character.—Hazlitt

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

QUATRAINS

Adventure

To go where man has never been,
To see what man has never seen;
What man has never done to do,
We've but to live tomorrow through.

Success

Success belongs to every man
Who lives and does the best he can.
No more than that the good Lord asks,
Though great or humble be the tasks.

Grumblers

The blossoms come and the song birds sing,
However rainy be the spring.
'Tis only men who get together
And blame their failures on the weather.

Fisherman's Luck

That luck plays favorites, I know,
Whenever three men fishing go,
One carries home a string at night;
The others never get a bite.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

THE IMMORTALITY OF INFLUENCE

Little do any of us realize the influence that we have upon others. The man or woman does not exist who lacks influence upon someone, to a greater or less degree. People's dress, habits, and way of life influence us—often unconsciously.

These bodies of ours alone die. Our thoughts, expressed and lived, live on. They are the immortal part of us. Take the influence of Jesus, as an example. We have only a small bit of the story of his life and of the things which he said—but they have gone on for nearly two thousand years to influence more human beings than any other figure in history. What he did and said has set a pattern for us all—a perfect pattern for a useful and happy life.

It was the character of Washington, and of Abraham Lincoln, as well as of Lee, that bound men to them. Their genius for the handling of men was secondary. Their influence in life still goes on, enriching every page of history, and inviting us to revere their memory.

Probably no other individuals so influence the life of the world as do our mothers. Their unselfishness, their sacrificial acts, and their undying love remain with us throughout life as guiding factors in all that we do and are, or ever hope to be.

Someone is always watching us. And each one of us is always radiating some kind of influence. You have but to read the letters that Walt Whitman wrote to his mother to come to an understanding of his immortal influence through the things that he wrote. Early reviled and scoffed at, today he probably represents more truly the hope and dreams of a democratic people than any other poet of America.

It is too early to appraise the great influence upon the world of Mme. Chiang—but surely she is treading the path that leads to immortal influence. Underneath the garments of her superior faith, undoubtedly, is to be learned the secret. Said she: "I go walking, and the hills loom above me, range upon range, one against the other. I cannot tell where one begins and another leaves off. But when I talk with God He lifts me up where I can see clearly, where everything has a distinct contour." It is impossible to measure the influence of such a character.

Do not deride or mistake the influence that you possess—for you do possess it, to a greater or less degree. Be selfless and learn the joy of its aftermath!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Example."

"Powder Keg" Air Over Coal Fields; New Strike Threat

LEVY OF FINES BY ICKES STIRS NEW COAL CRISIS

Washington, June 11 (AP)—A powder keg atmosphere hung over the nation's coal fields today as government fines on miners for their last walkout brought threats of a new strike.

War Labor board coolness toward a wage increase agreement between the United Mine Workers and a Pennsylvania group of operators contributed also to the tenseness of the situation.

Interior Secretary Ickes, Federal operator of the mines since May 1, ordered the fines yesterday. They follow terms of the old U. M. W. contract, $1 a day for each miner for each day he is off the job without a valid reason. In this case, the men were away five days. The money goes to charity.

Ickes pointed out that the government ordered the old contract continued when negotiations were deadlocked over U. M. W. President John L. Lewis' demands for $2 a day boosts. The union contended through a number of spokesmen however that the fines were illegal because the contract had expired.

"Political Tyranny"
Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky union officials warned that the government fines would be "resented" by the men. Several came out flatly with a prediction of another walkout, and Lewis summed up his opinion of Ickes' order in these words:

"An unwarranted, illegal act which takes nearly $3,000,000 worth of food from the fingers and mouths of children of the mining camps—a brutal application of economic sanctions against free citizens. . . . Another step toward political tyranny in America."

The men are working under a truce that expires midnight June 20. Lewis ordered them back last Monday with that stipulation.

Meantime Lewis and the Appalachian joint wage conference failed to conclude an agreement on the basic demand—pay for portal-to-portal (underground travel) time. They said in simultaneous statements that their conversations were "farclaud."

HEAVY RAINS IN MAY HURT CORN AND OATS CROP

Harrisburg, June 11 (AP)—Almost daily rains in May hindered farmers from getting their corn and oats in the ground in many parts of Pennsylvania, and buckwheat and soybeans are being sown instead. Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst reported today.

Horst, who made no estimate of the acreage affected, issued a federal-state crop report which said that on many farms in the northern part of the state on June 1 "no spring planting had been done," while "some rotting of crops already planted is occurring in all districts."

Good Hay Crop
"On the bright side," the report continued, "hay crops and pastures are excellent and in some localities cultivated crops look remarkably well. Early commercial truck crops are making good growth and victory gardens are yielding their first fruits."

The survey showed May's wet weather also retarded potato planting and the report added, "rot from excessive moisture is prevalent to some extent in the planted crop in nearly every section of the state."

The fruit crop is expected by the department to be much lighter than was indicated by the heavy bloom, the report explaining.

"Continuous rains caused a heavy fall of petals and cool, wet weather when trees were in bloom prevented bees from being very active, resulting in a much lighter set of fruit. Many growers expect a heavy June drop" of unripened fruit.

Beta Lambda sorority at a bridge party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Weaver, Broadway.

Miss Rhoda Breighner and Bernard Maguire acted as god-mother and god-father for Chester G. Small, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Small, when the infant was baptized in St. Francis Xavier church, Sunday morning.

Burgoyne Keith, a student at St. Alban's school, Washington, D. C., is spending the summer vacation at his home on Carlisle street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beyer, of Norristown, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Reen, Chambersburg street. J. B. Wineman is spending a week in Houston, Texas, where he will transact business.

Flashes of Life

THERE'S A CROWD

Philadelphia (AP)—If crowds block Chestnut street again today, three teen-age boys had better not be found in the vicinity.

Just by pointing at a parked sedan and whispering among themselves, police complained, they attracted enough curious passers-by to halt traffic four times yesterday.

"And I thought I knew crowds," sighed Patrolman Jim Polk. "Why, people were even saying there were snakes in the back seat of that car."

TURN ABOUT

New York (AP)—Now, it's gorillas who have to be protected from humans.

The Bronx zoo has encased the gorilla house with three large windows—so the Simians won't catch colds from the public.

EXAGGERATED

Tacoma, Wash. (AP)—Sgt. Donald Zelinsky, 23, crossing the Atlantic last year, heard a Nazi news flash announce an American ship had been sunk.

He was mildly surprised, because it was the ship he was aboard.

"SO I CAN BRAG"

El Paso, Tex. (AP)—Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., wrote a 10-year-old Texas boy who wanted to be an Army mascot that "you can be sure there will be more wars . . . and I feel convinced that being a boy from Texas you will give a good account of yourself."

The boy, Bill Patton (no relative), had added to his note volunteering as a mascot:

"Please answer . . . so I can brag to the kids in school."

New Oxford

New Oxford—Mrs. E. C. Livingston has been spending some time in Baltimore at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Estep, and family. Dr. and Mrs. Estep, former residents of Abbottstown, recently announced the birth of their second daughter, Laura Jane. Mrs. Estep is the former Miss Sara Livingston, of this place.

Miss Margaret Beard has been a patient for the past week at the Hanover General hospital.

At the commencement exercises Sunday evening at the Delone Catholic high school in McSherrystown, the Misses Mary Christine Glass, Teresa Margaret Noel, Mary Frances Smith and Mary Agnes Weaver, all of this place, were among the 49 students who received diplomas.

A receptacle has been placed in the lobby of the Earl theatre here by the proprietor, William H. Snyder, Jr., in which patrons are asked to deposit old silk and nylon hose for the war effort.

The local Lions club sponsored a collection of metals, tin cans, rubber, rags, paper, etc. for the war effort on Saturday under the direction of the chairman, Preston B. Dallmeyer. Boy Scouts aided in collecting by manning a truck furnished for the purpose by M. R. Freed, a club member.

Pvt. George Hale has returned to Camp Van Dorn, Mississippi after spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hale, and family.

The local Garden club conducted its regular meeting Monday evening on the lawn of the home of Mrs. Robert E. Hemminger, here. Mrs. Hemminger and Miss Lottie Cashman were joint hostesses.

There will be no meetings of Class No. 7 of St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed Sunday school during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sheads of this place have received word that their son, Richard Sheads, stationed with the Army at Camp Campbell, Kentucky, has been promoted from second lieutenant to first lieutenant.

Mrs. Dorothy Schrader left here during the past week and will spend some time with her husband, PFC. William Schrader, at Camp Forrest, Tennessee.

The women of the Mite society of St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed church conducted their regular meeting at the church property on Monday evening.

The local fire company conducted its regular meeting on Friday evening at the engine house here.

Pantelleria Surrenders

tinuous attack against the rocky island which Premier Mussolini began bolstering in 1937 with the idea of making it an Italian Gibraltar.

So heavy were the waves of the Allied aerial traffic—almost "nose to tail"—that some formations had to circle offshore for several minutes before soaring in to another such gun, emplacements, air field targets and other military objectives as had escaped the explosives and gunfire of their predecessors.

Smoke and Flame

Blankets of smoke and flame lay above the debris.

American-made planes predominated in this final blow of an aerial offensive unique in concentration and continuity.

Despite the frantic attempt of Axis squadrons to check the attacks, many of the heavy bomber crews never saw an enemy fighter in the air over Pantelleria.

The little enemy outpost held out less than 72 hours after the ultimatum demanding its unconditional surrender was dropped from Allied planes Tuesday. Then the white flag was raised.

Ponderous and heavily-loaded Wellingtons and swift Hurricane bombers of the RAF attacked Pantelleria in the darkness Wednesday.

Enemy fighter strength based on Sicily was flung into the daylight defense yesterday against swarms of all types of aircraft in the Allied strategic and tactical air forces—Fortresses, Raiders, Mitchells, Bostons, Baltimore, Lightnings, Warhawks and Spitfires.

Final Cleanup

When Axis fighters dived on two formations of Raiders over the town of Marauders over the target, escorting Warhawks shot down five interceptors and a sixth was destroyed by Marauder gunners in a running fight that continued back some 40 miles, almost to Cap Bon.

Besides countless hits on military installations there were also numerous bombs bursts on the air field, an air force statement said. "Several large explosions, probably the result of bombs hitting ammunition stores, are reported."

American-gained Spitfires took a heavy toll among enemy fighters, which became more numerous as the day wore on.

One Spitfire squadron downed five enemy planes in the morning. Another squadron of the same American group destroyed seven more in the late afternoon.

Spitfires made the afternoon cleanup when a flight of 13 Italian Macchi 202s swooped toward Allied bombers several thousand feet below. The Spitfires headed off the enemy.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Barnesboro, Pa., June 11 (AP)—A fall of rock killed Jess H. Rice, 42, as he worked in the Reed Coal company mine near this Cambria county community. His son John, working nearby, was unhurt.

Chapter 6

"Just me. Nobody 'cept me," old Gibbs told Ann when she asked him who else knew that Terrence spring was a fake. "Just me."

"But . . . why did she do it, Gibbs?"

His gaze was steady. "I reckon she done it for you, Miss Ann. For you and Lydia. It was 'bout the year you was a-hankerin' after some big school and your mother wasn't a-goin' to let you go and Miss Gussie says she's got to do somethin'." So she did. She thought up the spring. He nodded his approval.

Ann was staggered. She had known her grandmother's fortunes changed with the discovery of the mineral spring but not that the mineral spring had been "discovered" by the simple expedient of inventing it.

Now, more than ever, she must get Terrence House herself and close it to the wealthy, idle guests who paid to bathe in and drink from a spring that didn't exist.

But until then she'd keep the spring going. She wouldn't let Grand Gussie down.

She wouldn't let the town down either. For no matter what her grandmother had done she had done it grandly and Ann would preserve the legend.

She handed Gibbs a $10 bill. "When that's used up come back, Gibbs. I—I think I can give you a little more."

A little more, maybe. But how quickly the cost of minerals would deplete her small savings.

When Gibbs was gone she turned to Matilda.

"You need to be cleaned up, young lady," she said to the bird but she was too preoccupied with her own thoughts to try to give the cage a thorough washing. A fresh paper streak through the small door at the side was more than the bird had had since Grand Gussie died. Ann was sure of that for no one would know to look for the hidden spring that let the cage literally fall apart for the kind of weekly cleanings her grandmother gave it.

But Ann knew. She had watched it done on several occasions. And she would do it herself when she had time to figure it out.

Now she was too distressed by the events of the last twenty-four hours to think of the cage.

She was not Grand Gussie's granddaughter by adoption. Neither was she heiress by will unless a will could be found. It looked as though Jerry Lane would inherit the big house by default.

Inherit the fake well, too. That was what troubled her. He'd sell the house to Mr. Baxton's clients, they'd discover the fraud and as likely as not would sue him. Then the whole secret would be out and Grand Gussie would be disgraced.

Ann couldn't let that happen. But she was letting it happen.

The idea that she might appeal to Jerry's sense of fair play kept nudging its way into her consciousness but her pride rejected it. It was too much like asking favor of a conqueror.

Yet by morning she knew it was the only way open to her. She would appeal to him on a sentimental basis to let her buy Terrence House herself. If he was sympathetic she might be able to make some long time terms that a clerk's salary could eventually meet. Surely he'd be reasonable in selling her a house that by all rights should be hers in the first place.

She was grateful her trunk had come from the station. She selected a jumper frock of gold jersey with a white satin blouse. The blouse was trimmed in tiny ruffles of lace. It was one of her most flattering costumes. Putting it on she felt as might an accused in court trying to win acquittal by the use of feminine charms. But she didn't care. If the gold jersey would help soften Jerry's heart as much the better.

With nervous fingers she reached for the house phone and asked for his room.

He answered promptly.

"I have to see you," she managed to say. "Could you meet me downstairs in the library?"

"Certainly." She thought there was surprise in his voice but if so he was quick to conceal it.

She couldn't read anything in his face either when they faced each other in the study.

He motioned for her to be seated on the big davenport before the fireplace but she refused. What she had to say could be better said on her feet.

"I . . . you see . . ." she groped for the right words and hated herself. She was as jittery as a school girl confronted by an oral examination. "It's just that I'd always counted on having Terrence House for a—home and I find I can't inherit it."

"You admit you can't inherit it?" His formality appalled her. Yesterday he had seemed ready to meet her half way, to go more than half way if she made the right signs. But today he had retreated behind a cold exterior. "You're renouncing your claim?"

Oh, how impersonal he was, how unbending. Her face flushed at the memory of the accusation she had flung at him in Mr. Baxton's office.

"I'm not renouncing my claim," she said evenly, "because so far it seems I have none. But Terrence House means a great deal to me. Sentiment."

She was glad her voice quavered. It would add conviction to the words she wanted to say. "It was my grandmother's home. I . . . I would like to make it my home, too."

"I didn't make the law," he said without warmth.

"Then . . . I . . . I have a proposition to make to you."

"All right. Go ahead."

"If . . . if you do inherit it, would you be willing to let me buy it from you. Let me have it instead of strangers?"

Krupa Musicians Beaten As Zooters

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—A pianist and a saxophonist in Gene Krupa's dance band were mistaken for zoot-suiters and severely beaten by two unidentified sailors early Thursday in a Broad street subway station.

The pianist, Michael Marmarosa, 17, of Pittsburgh, was taken unconscious to Hahnemann hospital and attendants said he possibly suffered a skull fracture. The saxophonist, Boniface De Franco, 20, of Philadelphia, was treated for a cut lip.

The musicians, playing with the band at a dance hall here, were wearing their band uniforms—light blue gabardine jackets, darker trousers, starched white shirts and bow ties. Before the attack, De Franco said, "both sailors mumbled something about zoot suits."

Lt. Jeanne Hoffman Home After 16 Months Overseas On U.S. Army Nursing Duty

A world war, a French revolution, "mosquitoes that make Gettysburg seem like tame canaries," mud into which one sinks up nearly to one's knees, and ground so gravelly that the soles of a pair of government issue shoes wear out in three months.

Those were some of the experiences of Lieut. Jeanne Hoffman, U.S. Army nurse and daughter of Mrs. Gilbert Hoffman, Baltimore street, and Gilbert Hoffman, an engineer in Alaska.

But the "most soul satisfying thing was eating shrimp and fresh strawberries back in San Francisco," according to Lieut. Hoffman.

The Gettysburg nurse, who is back on furlough after 16 months in New Caledonia, Australia and New Zealand, in an interview Monday said the first thing the contingent of nurses she was with did when they returned from New Caledonia was to head for the nearest restaurant and feast on the foods they had not been able to obtain for 16 long months.

Shrimp and strawberries were the two foods Miss Hoffman was most hungry for when she returned. Some of the nurses stuffed themselves with devil's food cake and other delicacies.

Improved Facilities
Miss Hoffman and eighteen other Army nurses, all members of the Pennsylvania Hospital unit of Philadelphia, were called into service January, 1942, and sent overseas immediately. Lieutenant Hoffman is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and graduated from Pennsylvania hospital, Philadelphia, in 1940. She worked at the Pennsylvania hospital until the contingent was called into service.

Most of the time she spent at New Caledonia—"although the only thing familiar about Caledonia was the name," she said.

The nurses lived in tents and the hospital itself comprised a number of tents. Much of the treatment was improvised with nurses and doctors figuring out how to do what was necessary with what was available. Most of the conveniences available in hospitals here were lacking during the early days of the hospital.

Life at the hospital was more comfortable after the first several months, but one problem bothered all—food.

Tamed Deer For Pet
While food was plentiful there was little variety in the fare, and desserts and delicacies were scarce.

Meat was one of the most missed articles at first but when shipments did arrive "nurses and men ate meat and nothing else."

Some meat was provided by deer shot by nurses and doctors on hunting trips in the mountains of Caledonia. A small deer was captured by one member of the camp and became a pet of the hospital group. It was "fresh meat," Miss Hoffman said, and more than once when meat was scarce members of the group could be seen looking longingly at the pet deer. "None had the heart to kill the animal, however," she said.

The deer meat there was better than the meat of Adams county deer, Miss Hoffman said. The New Caledonia deer has more tender meat with a more tasty flavor. The animals are about the same size as local deer.

Fishing Trips Popular
Mail day was more popular with the nurses than pay-day—for there was little or nothing that could be done with the money. Occasionally a nurse would buy some local food to supplement the bill of fare at the hospital, and some money was needed for laundry. Outside of that there were no expenditures, she said. Mail day however brought news from home and usually everyone who could stopped to read the mail and open gifts.

Citrus fruits were plentiful. Huge 200 to 400-pound turtles were sometimes captured by nurses who chartered boats from native Frenchmen for deep sea fishing trips. Miss Hoffman was on a number of trips, but was unable to capture a turtle or shark, another favorite sporting fish. A large catch of fish was guaranteed on every trip.

Saw Revolutionists
Turtle steak the size of a beef-steak was a delicacy.

The main difficulty was in keeping meat and other perishable foods. The limited refrigeration facilities at the hospital were used for drugs and chemicals. The meat had to be eaten promptly.

The army contingent saw little of the revolution in French New Caledonia. They saw some of the small French revolutionary army marching on the capital city, Noumea. A short time after the army entered the city the revolution was over—"for another year or two," French-

FIREMEN VOTE $50 FOR HONOR ROLL IN SQUARE

Donations of $50 toward the erection of the marker in-center square honoring all of Adams county's soldiers in the war and $3 toward a stand of colors for the 55th College Training Detachment at Gettysburg college were voted by the Gettysburg fire company at its June meeting, Wednesday evening at the engine house.

The vote for the $50 gift carried the provision that "if not enough money is raised by the committee an additional contribution will be given later on."

Cards seeking contributions—in cash—for the fire company were distributed to members.

The cards ask residents to give to the firemen, in cash, a sum equivalent to the amount they would have given in ordinary times in the form of cake, candy or other prizes.

Elect New Member
No bazaar is being held by the firemen this year. The annual event which brought hundreds of dollars into the fire company treasury to be expended for fire equipment has been cancelled for this year because gasoline rationing would prevent the thousands of people who usually attend from coming to Gettysburg for the affair.

Only a one night program, Friday, June 25, when prizes will be awarded at 9 p. m., will be held. Solicitations will be completed by firemen on June 23 and 24 although they will start soliciting immediately. Premiums will be kept at the engine house this year instead of being displayed in windows of various stores of the town, the firemen decided. Members of the fire company will be on duty at the engine house every evening during the week of June 20 to receive prize books, it was stated.

James S. Shenk, manager of the Gettysburg Autoparts store, was elected to membership in the company to fill the vacancy caused by the induction of Edward Culp into the U. S. armed forces.

To Solicit on Foot
President James B. Aumen told the firemen that the collections of cash should bring more to the company this year than they had made at bazaars in previous years, if returns continue to come in as they have. Out of 150 cards mailed to persons in the county 40 have already been returned "with nice contributions," he said. Largest contribution so far was $50 from the Orrtanna Canning company. No solicitation will be made out of town other than by mail and solicitors in town are expected to walk to homes in their section, it was stated, in order to save gasoline.

A vote of thanks was extended to John Storm for the donation of a gas water heater to the fire company.

The third quarterly meeting of the county firemen's association will be held at East Berlin July 5 at 8:30 p. m., it was announced.

The company acknowledged a donation of $25 from the Adams County Novelty company of Gettysburg in appreciation of services rendered by the local company at a recent blaze on the company property.

First Jewish Services Are Held On Campus

The first Jewish service ever conducted at Gettysburg college was held at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson's office for students of the 55th College Training Detachment. Dr. Philip David Bookstaber of Temple Ohev Shalom, Harrisburg, officiated. Nineteen persons were present.

Several of the cadets and their wives heard Rabbi Bookstaber give praise to Dr. Hanson and Don Heiges for their part in making possible the service which will be a weekly feature. The Rabbi also complimented the college for its "fine understanding of inter-faith relationships."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Oppenheim, of Harrisburg, representing the Sisterhood and Brotherhood of the Temple, were also present and promised to arrange some social functions. Mr. Oppenheim expressed his desire to have "boys of the non-Jewish faith invited to the service."

Reject Request To Keep Hogs In Borough Limits

Council turned thumbs down quickly and without a dissenting voice, Monday evening, on the request of a town resident for permission to keep hogs in the borough during the war.

Councilman George D. March added that the resident asking the special permission had pointed out that the feeding of hogs was permitted here during World War I.

The borough fathers quickly pointed out that repeal of a borough ordinance would be necessary before the permission could be granted. "Soon others would ask the same permission. It would be a definite step backward," councilmen agreed.

"BUD" ZHEA IS NAMED SPECIAL POLICE OFFICER

Gettysburg town councilmen received from the borough's civil service commission their first certified list of eligibles for election to the borough police force—and found that on the list of three eligibles compiled after the recent civil service examination, one already has been removed by Selective Service.

Charles William "Bud" Zhea, York street, who headed the list of eligibles with a rating of 81, was named special borough police officer to take the place of Horace L. Bender, who resigned about a month ago. Zhea also was named janitor at the engine house and council ruled that Zhea "be paid such compensation as janitor as added to his pay for police duties shall make a total of $120 per month." Bender was receiving that amount when he resigned.

Others Certified
Under the civil service system Zhea will be in line for a position on the regular police force when a vacancy occurs. The position of janitor expires at the end of this year when all borough employees, excepting police, will end current terms. Zhea is expected to begin his new duties June 15.

The other name on the certified list submitted to council by Wilbur J. Stallsmith, a member of the local civil service commission, is that of Francis L. Wisotzky, West Middle street. His rating is 70. The third name was that of Edward A. Culp, York street, who was inducted into the Army last Friday.

Other action on police matters Monday evening included the adoption of a resolution fixing a two-week annual vacation with pay for regular members of the police force. A 14-day sick leave, upon certification of a physician, also is allowed but the vacation and sick leave are not cumulative, the resolution stated. The same measure provides $50 annually for each officer toward the cost of uniforms. The resolution also fixes a 6-day work week for borough police.

To Ordain Road
The borough engineer, solicitor and ordinance committee were directed to take action on the road.

SCHRIVER NEW CHIEF OBSERVER

Wilbur J. Stallsmith has resigned as chief observer at the local aircraft warning system observation post, it was announced Thursday by Lawrence M. Sheads, area supervisor, and Elmer H. Schriver, Oak Ridge, teacher of agricultural education at the high school, has been appointed by the Army to fill the post.

Robert Gilbert has been moved up from officer of the day to as-servers will be held this evening formerly held by Mr. Schriver.

A meeting of spotters and all persons who would like to become observers will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Gettysburg annex, it was announced.

Three motion pictures will be shown, including a film outlining the duties of observers, the "Battle of Midway" in technicolor, and "Rear Gunner," a picture showing the duties of the tail gunner in an Army bomber.

Sergeant M. C. Davis, of the Harrisburg Filter center, who is touring the county on an inspection of the various spotter posts will be present to answer questions. Stanton D. House, head of the district spotter set-up, also will be present, it was stated.

CHILD KILLED BY AUTO NEAR YORK SPRINGS

State Trooper Deatrick told The Gettysburg Times at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon that he found no marks on the car of Rural Carrier Russell Gardner, 48, York Springs R. 1, when he examined the machine upon Gardner's return to the York Springs post office. Gardner told the officer he did not see the Wells child. He remembered feeling a "bump" as he drove away from the Wells mailbox but thought it was due to the rough road.

Mrs. Wells told a Times reporter she saw her daughter lying between the wheels under the Gardner machine as the mailman drove off.

Judith Wells, two-and-a-half-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wells, residing two miles from York Springs in Huntingdon township, was killed about 9:30 o'clock this morning when she was struck by an automobile the driver of which was not determined at one o'clock this afternoon.

The little girl was found by her mother lying in the road outside the home a few minutes after she left the house. She died in her mother's arms a few minutes later.

There were no witnesses and State Police were unable to determine exactly how the accident happened. They are of the belief that the driver of the car was unaware of the fatal accident and continued on his way without knowing that he had struck the child.

State Police Investigate
Russell Gardner, rural carrier out of York Springs, was seen by the mother driving down the road when she found her fatally injured daughter in the road.

State Trooper Robert Deatrick, of the local sub-station, investigating the fatality, was unable to locate Gardner whom he believes may have been the driver of the machine but whom he also feels was unaware of the accident. Trooper Deatrick went to York Springs to meet Gardner who was expected to return to the post office about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Will Hold Inquest
In the hope that her child might be revived by medical treatment, Mrs. Wells held the youngest in her arms while Howard Griest, who is employed at the Wells farm, drove her to the Warner hospital. Upon arriving in Gettysburg, Mrs. Wells was told her daughter was dead—and that death apparently had occurred within a few minutes after the accident.

Dr. C. G. Crist, the Adams county coroner, said death resulted from internal injuries and a fractured skull.

He said an inquest will be held but did not set the date.

Clarence Wells, father of the accident victim, is employed in Coatesville. The family has lived in this county only a few months.

The death Wednesday morning of little Judith Wells, 2½-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wells, York Springs R. 2, has been listed officially as "purely accidental" and Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said Thursday morning that unless some unexpected new angle to the case appears no inquest will be held.

Judith died in her mother's arms about 9:30 o'clock, a few minutes after Mrs. Wells had found the unconscious form of the oldest of her three children lying in the roadway when she went for the mail after hearing the carrier's car stop at the mail box.

Dr. Crist and Corporal C. F. Tenke and Private Robert Deatrick from the Gettysburg substation of the state police spent Wednesday afternoon questioning Russell Gardner, York Springs R. 1, who is Route 2 carrier out of the York Springs post office, and in securing the mother's account of the tragedy. The mail carrier's car was examined and the scene of the accident was inspected.

Private Deatrick said Thursday he received this statement Wednesday from the mailman: "I stopped at the Wells home this morning to deliver mail. The box is on the left (west) side of the road and I drove over to it because there is seldom any traffic on the road. I've seen the Wells girl several times and I'm not sure whether I noticed her this (Wednesday) morning going toward the barn on the right side of the road but I believe it was today. I did not see her after that but I do recall that as I drove away I noticed a bump at the right front of the car but I did not pay any attention to it as I thought I had struck a stone."

Soldier Sends $10 To Red Cross From Overseas

The Adams county Red Cross war fund drive nearly reached its second quota Tuesday with a $10 contribution sent by a soldier overseas who learned—four months late, that the drive had started when a bundle of copies of The Gettysburg Times finally caught up with him in his travels as a member of the United States Army.

Corporal John B. Keith, son of Mrs. John D. Keith, Carlisle street, sent the contribution as soon as he learned of the drive. The amount reached the Red Cross office here Tuesday morning.

The $10 brings the amount collected to within $4.32 of the $21,000 second quota set for the drive. The original quota of $18,700 was secured a number of months ago during the one-month long original drive throughout the nation.

LT. L. T. WILLET DIES; FORMER STORE MANAGER

First Lieutenant Lloyd T. Willet, 43, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Willet, West Middle street died at 2 a. m. Thursday following a major operation at a Denver, Colorado, hospital. He had been stationed at Berkeley Field, Denver, since Christmas.

No details of the death were immediately available here. His wife is enroute here from Denver to complete arrangements for the funeral.

Lieutenant Willet was manager of the G. C. Murphy company store here until he received his commission in the Army. He was assistant head of the post exchange at the Denver field.

He married for the second time, last summer shortly after coming here, Miss Helen Baer, of York.

With Company 15 Years
Lieutenant Willet spent most of his life as an employee of McCrory's or Murphy stores. He attended Lebanon high school and later when his family moved to Hanover he was employed at a factory in Hanover. He then became an employee of the McCrory store and continued with that firm for ten years. He was employed by the Murphy company for 15 years and was manager of a store at State College before coming here.

He is survived by his widow, his parents, and two children by previous marriage, Mrs. Joyce Plinchbaugh, Red Lion, and Raymond Willet, Shippensburg.

County Sets New Mark In Bond Buying

Adams countians set a new record for purchases of Series "E" war bonds during the month of May when, the Third Federal Reserve district advised Edmund W. Thomas, county chairman, total sales in this county reached $147,223.

This figure put the county "over the top" by $36,776, the largest "over the top" figure set in this area since the institution of Series "E" bonds.

This grand total does not represent the total sales of all bonds in the county. It represents only the purchases of the Series "E" bonds for which the quota was placed at $110,447.

Sales during the first quarter totaled $94,443. In the second quarter, $12,018 worth of Series "E" bonds were purchased by Adams countians. During the third quarter sales amounted to $21,881 and during the fourth and last quarter sales were reported at $18,881.

Figures for the first quarter of June have not been compiled as yet. The quota for June is the same as May.

JOSEPH MARTIN ARRESTED

Joseph Martin, Gettysburg R. 1, was arrested Friday by Private H. K. Trout, of the Gettysburg state police on a charge of public indecency. The charge was laid before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. Martin was released on bail, after pleading guilty, to appear in court.

Clarence E. Fair, Gettysburg R. 1, Mt. Joy township, Monday announced his candidacy for associate judge of Adams county on the Republican ticket.

Mr. Fair has been a member of the Cumberland township election board for 17 years and for a number of years conducted a store and filling station at Barlow. He is vice-president of the Barlow fire company. He has resided in Adams county since he was 15 years of age coming here from Taneytown.

Legion Expects To Reach Quota

Membership in the Albert J. Lentz post of the Legion is expected to exceed the quota of 249 before Armistice Day Legionnaires felt Monday evening when it was reported at their regular meeting that 242 members had already enrolled.

Two new members, both veterans of World War No. 2 were inducted into the organization. They are Earl Deardorff, Biglerville, and Ward C. Houck, Hanover street.

A campaign to raise money for cigarettes to be sent soldiers overseas was inaugurated. Thirty-five members attended with Commander C. Arthur Brame presiding.

TAWNEY CASE TO BE ACTED UPON NEXT MONDAY

Whatever councilmanic action—if any—is to be taken on the recent discharge of J. A. Tawney, West Middle street, as street commissioner in Gettysburg was postponed Monday evening until a special session of council set for next Monday evening.

The Tawney matter came up first when the minutes of the May meeting were read by Secretary Wilmer Dracha. The minutes stated that the highway committee was "given full authority to act as they saw fit" in dealing with the reported friction between Mr. Tawney and the borough truck driver, Guy Boien, who has been acting as commissioner since Mr. Tawney's discharge last month.

President Oyler thought the minutes were "a little wrong" on that point but Councilman Joseph D. Kendelhart and Charles W. Stener, Jr., assured him the entry was entirely accurate. Mr. Oyler said as he recalled the decision last month the committee was to "straighten out" the difficulty. Kendelhart said the committee was told to "settle it." Councilman L. D. Shealer, third member of the highway committee, said his recollection was that the highway employees were to be assigned in two groups—with Tawney in charge of one and Bolen driving the truck on the other.

President Oyler brought the discussion to a quick close by saying he had no intention of arguing about the matter and declared the minutes approved.

The Tawney-Bolen case popped up again when Councilman Stener asked a $25-a-month raise for Bolen who now gets $100 a month. Several councilmen objected to the raise inasmuch as Bolen has not been elected commissioner. Stener pressed for a vote on his motion for the pay jump and President Oyler offered to call a special meeting to act on the matter. He said Councilman Ray M. Hoffman, absent Monday evening because of the death of his mother, asked that no action on the case be taken until he is present.

Asks Plant Addition

Councilman Stener also asked for a $10-a-month raise and a vacation for Robert Shealer, disposal plant operator. President Oyler objected to quick action on pay raises until a study is made and budgetary provisions are taken into consideration.

Councilman Stener also urged the construction of an open dry house at the disposal plant. He declared it is "essential" but could not state how it would fit into the picture when the new $40,000 unit is added at the disposal plant. The $40,000 addition will have to be made eventually, Burgess Pfeiffer said, and he urged that current improvements be studied in connection with that plan.

The dry house was listed for action after the Tiber work is finished.

50th Anniversary Service On Sunday

A service to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Peter E. Heimer into the Christian ministry will be held at Emmanuel church, Abbottstown, on Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. Heimer was pastor of the New Oxford-Abbottstown charge at the time of his ordination in 1893. It was during his pastorate that the present building of Emmanuel church was constructed. Dr. Heimer is now retired and living at Frederick. The present pastor is the Rev. Dr. D. F. Ehlman.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce scheduled for Monday evening has been postponed, it was stated Friday. No date has been given for the postponed session.

42 COUNTIANS ACCEPTED FOR ARMED SERVICE

Lee M. Hartman, Adams county prothonotary, and three county school teachers, George Forney, Gettysburg high; Donald Ulrich, Biglerville, and George Reisinger, Biglerville high, were among the 42 western Adams county men accepted for service in the United States armed forces, Friday, following physical examination at Harrisburg.

Two men were accepted for the Marines, thirteen for the Navy, 26 for the Army and one for the Coast Guard following examination of the contingent sent under the June call of the Gettysburg Selective Service board.

Seven of the men were volunteers, two of them fathers of children: born prior to Pearl Harbor. Most of the men were married, the first large contingent of married men to be sent by the Gettysburg board. The remainder were mostly 18 year olds, recent graduates of county high schools.

Some Volunteers

Both men selected for the Marines, Donald James Cole, Gettysburg, and Robert Watkins Troxell, Fairfield R. 1, were volunteers. Prothonotary Hartman is a volunteer officer candidate. Edgar Cornelius Little, Gettysburg, one of the fathers selected and Joseph Albert Marsden, of Gettysburg, both of the Navy, and Joseph Michael Weimer, Gettysburg, the other father accepted, and John William Roth, also of Gettysburg, were also volunteers.

Prof. Reisinger was named acting corporal for the Army contingent while William Sylvester Carter, Gettysburg R. 1, was selected as acting corporal for the colored youths selected for service in the Army.

Acting Official
Miss Edna Eicholtz, deputy prothonotary, is carrying on as acting prothonotary.

Officials at the draft board Saturday said no call would be made next month, as far as is known, of married men with children. However a number of married men with children have been called for physical examination prior to reclassification. The list of men accepted Friday includes:

SAYS HITLERISM WILL BE BEATEN BY A SUPERIOR FORCE OF ARMS

"Germany will not be defeated until we place a superior army with superior material on European soil and have given the German army a number of major defeats.

"If the German armies are thus confronted by superior force and suffer successive defeats on European soil as they did in Tunisia, we will witness the same quick disintegration of the German army in Europe as we did of the Afrika Korps."

Those predictions were made Monday evening by Dr. Leonard Guenther, German refugee and for many years a corporation lawyer in Germany, in an address given at the Ladies' Night program of the Rotary club at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Based on Observations

Guenther based his predictions on his observation of the breakdown of Germany in 1918 at the close of the last war and from his observation of Germany under Hitler.

"We will never be able to educate the Germans to democracy for they cannot understand what Democracy means. The Germans are a good methodical people but for 300 years they have been trained in obedience to higher authority and it will take many long years to educate them to democracy," said Dr. Guenther.

"But we will be able to educate them to Christianity. They will never understand the Atlantic Charter, but they can understand the Sermon on the Mount. The Germans have been Christians since the earliest times and it should not be difficult to return them to Christianity. Even Hitler himself has not tried to do away with God entirely. He has allowed the priests and ministers to hold services so as long as they do not mention anything he felt was political. He has even taught his followers to believe that God is always on the side of the strongest nation and the just cause."

A Hitler Mistake

"In that he has made one of his great mistakes. When Hitler falls the youngsters who blindly follow him now will realize that they have neither the strongest nation nor the just cause. In that moment we must strike quickly if we are to prevent the rebirth of another militaristic Germany," Mr. Guenther said.

"No one who has not been through that black moment of despair can know what it means to see one's nation defeated and for a time feel that you have been on the wrong side—that you have been led astray. I was a boy in school at the end of the last war and I know what that feeling is."

"When that moment comes we must do our utmost to help the good element in Germany bring the Germans as a whole back to their senses. For a short time the love the young national socialists feel for Hitler will be turned to hate. Then the fathers of the youngsters, the ministers and priests will have to work quickly to bring the young Germans back to Christianity. And we shall have to help them in their work. If we miss the bus as we did the last time then we shall have another German army to fight twenty years from now."

Taught To Hate

"After the last war able educators at the school where I was a student began showing us the mistake we had made as soon as the war was over. Four days after the war's end a German army officer came to the class room to tell us his mission was to make us hate our enemies, that his duty as a German was to train us for revenge to be secured in the future. And the government was too weak to stop the officer and help the educators who would have shown us the truth."

"The forces of reaction in Germany signified by that officer are strong and must be eliminated."

While morale is bad in Germany, Guenther declared, "the people think they are in the same boat as Hitler. They would like to go back to their homes and have peace but are afraid of the nations against which they have committed so many crimes."

Fear of Revenge

"It is this fear of a bloody revenge which keeps the Germans fighting. They want to save their own skins despite the fact that they do not love Hitler too well."

"There are three large groups in Germany," Guenther explained. "About 40 per cent of all Germans are on the fence, ready to condemn Hitler if he loses or praise him if he wins; another 30 per cent are confirmed Nazis and about 25 to 30 per cent are definitely anti-Hitler."

The speaker cited three types of Germans. A German banker who gave Guenther a 1000 mark note to hide in some candy so he could smuggle it out of Germany was given as an example of the anti-Hitlerite. A customs inspector who spoke to Guenther of his hatred for Hitler while at the same time removing some articles from Guenther's bags because "orders are orders" was given as an example of the people on the fence.

Human Sacrifice

The Nazi was exemplified by an experience of Guenther's shortly be-rected to prepare an ordinance for future action of council ordaining the Taneytown road to the borough line, preliminary to proposed improvements at the intersection of the road with Steinwehr avenue.

Council approved plans for rounding and cutting back the corner pavement at the Reformed church on South Stratton and East High streets.

The question of whether council can take action to bar a junk yard from being established on Hanover street was brought to council in the form of copies of two letters from the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope to E. C. Williams, spokesman for a group of protesting citizens who appeared before council recently to ask that the junk yard be prohibited by ordinance. Councilmen were told that the property in question has changed hands and a junk yard now is not imminent so the matter was dropped.

Burgess Reports

A conference with the Gettysburg Water company was urged at the request of T. DeWitt Hay, Taneytown road, for sewer service to his residence. It was suggested that the same ditch might be used for sewer and water lines with the borough and the utility sharing the cost. About 300 feet of sewer line will have to be constructed, it was stated.

Council named L. D. Shealer as Civilian Defense property officer.

The monthly report of Burgess Fred G. Pfeiffer showed receipts of $365.10—$5 for a building permit and the balance in admission taxes at the local theatres.

The annual spring clean-up of Gettysburg is not yet complete, it was disclosed, and President Oyler urged that the work be finished at the earliest possible moment.

LeRoy H. Winebrenner, borough engineer, was directed to survey the course of an alley between North Stratton and Carlisle streets, just north of the railroad. The alley is open now but is not ordained.

Robert Codori, East Broadway, came before council to ask that stone be placed on the extension of East Broadway to his residence. To date the street has been covered only with cinders.

Treasurer's Report

Luther Shryock appeared before council in connection with last month's order for the removal of two souvenir stands on Baltimore street, near the National cemetery. Shryock said one stand is the property of his son, now in military service, and has not been operated for more than a year. He promised to move it within a month and was assured that the other stand also will be ordered away.

The monthly report of Borough Treasurer John H. Basehore showed that first 1943 taxes are being received. During the month of May $916 from the 43 duplicate was received among total receipt items of $1,777. Expenses amounted to $2,074 but the town opened this month with a balance of $8,886 in the general fund and no temporary loans outstanding—a record unmatched in many years.

All members of council and the official "borough family" attended Monday's session with the exception of Councilman Ray M. Hoffman, second ward, whose mother died Saturday.

fore he left Germany. He said he was visiting the mother of a friend when the mailman brought a package. The mailman gave the package to Guenther to deliver. It contained the ashes of the mother's son who had died "of a failure of the heart" in a concentration camp. With the ashes was a polite but official note detailing that the youngster had died.

About 50 Rotarians and their ladies attended the dinner. Special guests included Captain John R. Coshey, Lieutenant Homer E. Tabler, Jr., and four group leaders from the 55th College Training detachment, William M. Blanchard of "A" Squadron; Walter Popaden of "B" Squadron; Julius M. King, "C" Squadron and J. T. McNamee, "D" Squadron. Dr. and Mrs. Granville Schultz were introduced as special guests. G. H. Roth was formally inducted into Rotary with Dr. J. Walter Coleman as initiating officer. President Paul Kinsey presided. Dr. Frederick Tilberg, president-elect, introduced the speaker.

Joseph H. Riley, Chambersburg street, was promoted from lieutenant to captain at Camp Shanks, Orangeburg, New York, on May 28. Captain Riley entered the service in October, 1941, and is now a staff officer at Camp Shanks.

NEED GREATER YIELD OF WOOD FOR WAR EFFORT

Production of lumber from Adams county's 60,000 acres of woodland will have to be greatly increased if the county is going to contribute its share of lumber and pulp for the war effort, D. E. Hess, county Farm Forester pointed out today.

Nearly a million board feet of lumber will be needed for the production of crates alone if the county is going to supply the wood necessary for crates to be used by its farmers and fruit growers.

The county's sawmills will produce between two and a half and three million board feet of lumber during the present year, but some of that will come from the more than 20,000 acres of woodland owned by the state and from woodlots in nearby counties.

Possible Field

That amount is the largest production by sawmills here in the last 10 years, Mr. Hess said.

The county's woodland could produce about 20,000 cords of pulp wood per year if all the wood were cut for this purpose, on a sustained yield basis, he estimated. That amount would supply nearly all of the pulpwood used in one year by one of the nearby pulp mills.

Thousands of acres of woodland that could have been used for the present national emergency need for lumber are out of production and will be unusable for years to come because of clear cutting in the past, he said. National needs for lumber call for cutting between 32 and 36 billion board feet during the present year, Mr. Hess said, while the need for pulpwood will call for the cutting of two and a quarter million cords.

Harvest "Ripe" Lumber

As a result of the need, Mr. Hess said, hundreds of acres of woodland that have never been cropped will need to be brought into production this year. Many small woodlots that previously had been used only to supply wood for heating the farmer's house can be cropped properly to produce a few additional cords of wood to be sold for lumber or pulpwood.

Hess warned against clear cutting, because the removal of all wood stops wood production for years to come and results in erosion.

Because of the continued need for lumber, he urged that only the merchantable trees be removed each year so that additional wood can be removed in forthcoming years as it becomes "ripe" and thus a steady supply for the nation's needs can be assured.

Child Killed

Police could find no marks on the car to indicate he had struck the child.

The child died of internal injuries and a crushing fracture to the back part of her skull.

Mrs. Wells had left her daughter on the porch of their house just a few minutes before the accident occurred, she said in an interview Wednesday afternoon. She had crossed to some outbuildings across the road from the house and was working there when she heard the mailman's car arrive and stop at the mailbox.

She immediately started for the mailbox. As she came around the side of the outbuilding she saw her daughter's body lying between the rear wheels of the car, as it was driving away from the home.

The child was lying with its head facing the rear of the car. The right hand was outstretched. When she picked up her daughter, Mrs. Wells noticed that the right hand was covered with mud as if it had been run over by the wheels of the car, she said. Later examinations showed the hand was not injured.

The child was lying over 20 feet from the mailbox Mrs. Wells said. Judith was wearing a maroon sweater and blue dress. She still was wearing the blue bedroom slippers she had put on shortly after rising that morning.

Besides her parents, the child is survived by a younger brother, Wade Marshall, and sister, Linda Jane, at home and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marshall, Dugspur, Virginia.

Mrs. Wells is the former Miss Lucille Marshall, of Virginia. Mr. Wells is a native of Canada.

The body was shipped to Coatesville Wednesday evening for services and burial.

High School Club Joins Federation

The Junior Historian History club of Gettysburg high school has been accepted for membership in the Pennsylvania Federation of Junior Historians, a state-wide organization sponsored by the Pennsylvania Historical commission.

The club, organized last February, meets monthly under the supervision of Miss Louise Ramer, faculty advisor. The 30 members are engaged in a number of projects, and during the past few months heard lectures by C. William Storck and Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, president of the Adams County Historical society.

Lt. Hoffman

men there declared. There was no bloodshed.

Huts, Children, Dogs

The curly-haired, dark-skinned natives, speaking a mixture of French and Javanese were friendly to the Americans but both natives and Americans kept mostly to themselves. Occasional trips were made by the nurses to the nearest native village, a small collection of thatched huts, naked children and dogs.

For that matter, Miss Hoffman said, the hundreds of dogs in the native villages were soon rivaled by an equal amount of dogs at the hospital camp. Every person in the camp had one or two dogs as pets.

Riding and swimming were two activities for leisure time. Many of the officers and men bought horses, rode through the hills on their free time. Swimming is enjoyed every day in the year.

The Feminine Touch

The climate proved stranger than fiction. A person could go swimming in the afternoon and have to sleep under four or five blankets at night, Miss Hoffman said. The cold nights occurred only during June, July and August, wintertime for the south Pacific island, 800 miles west of Australia. Many of the nurses looked forward to snow during the cold nights.

Daytime clothing consisted of khaki shirts and pants and high G.I. shoes. Low shoes were out in a few weeks in the rough country, she said.

The women's touch was soon evident in the camp. Cretonne was cut for lamp shades, table cloths and shelf covers. Wooden floors were laid in the tents and the tents screened against the billions of mosquitoes. Prior to screening mosquito nets were hung over each cot to keep away attacks by the pests.

Land of Plenty

French villages were marked by dirt and unsanitary conditions and most of the people seemed very poor at New Caledonia, she said. In contrast Australia was a land of plenty, with large estates and "wonderful" gardens. There seem to be no poor Australians, she said, with the poorest Australians seeming to live on a scale comparable with middle class Americans.

Australia is a vast country with possibilities beyond the limited number of residents there now. Lieutenant Hoffman said every Australian seems to be hoping for more and more settlers after the war so that the nation's potentialities might be realized.

Entertainment at New Caledonia was primitive at first, then motion pictures, usually old ones, were shown several nights a week. Joe E. Brown, movie comic, visited the camp and entertained the Army and natives.

Miss Hoffman is on a 25-day furlough and will report to Borden General hospital, Chickasha, Oklahoma, June 25, to resume her duties as an Army nurse.

Seek Paper In New Scrap Drive

An urgent appeal for the immediate collection of brown wrapping paper was issued today by O. H. Benson, county salvage chairman, as he announced a county-wide June drive for every type of scrap material of value to the war effort—with the exception of rubber which will be accepted but will not be specially sought during this month's campaign.

State salvage headquarters has told Mr. Benson of a "desperate" need for brown wrapping paper immediately and the 23 salvage collection groups in the county have been asked by the county chairman to gather all of that type of paper possible. Countians may give the paper to salvage groups or may sell it to dealers, Mr. Benson said. Wax and oil papers are not acceptable.

The June drive will attempt to set new records in the collection of scrap metals, rags, tin cans and household fats. The collection of fats in Adams county shows a steady increase, the chairman reported. Two tons of fats were gathered in May alone. Housewives will be paid four cents per pound for the fats at the official fats receiving stores and butcher shops.

FAREWELL HELD FOR FR. ONOFREY

An estimated 150 parishioners and other friends of the Rev. Fr. John J. Onofrey, rector of St. Mary's Catholic church at Fairfield who has left today for New Freedom where he has been assigned by Bishop George L. Leech, attended a farewell gathering Wednesday evening at the parish hall in the picnic grove at Fairfield.

Father Onofrey was presented with a gold and black initialed pen and pencil set. Refreshments were served and there was violin and banjo music by Joseph Bowling and John Sease.

Miss Rose Fraccalossi, housekeeper for the Fairfield priest, was given a necklace as a remembrance by the women of St. Mary's parish. The Rev. Fr. Joseph G. Gotwald is being transferred to Fairfield from Mt. Carmel where he was assistant rector of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel's church.

Red Cross Workers Seek Electric Fans

Electric fans cannot be bought in Gettysburg stores so Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, Red Cross production chairman, Saturday appealed to residents of the town to give, lend or rent one or more fans—preferably large ones—to be used in the surgical dressing work room in the Legion building.

Volunteer workers have been perspiring in those rooms this week folding thousands of bandages for use by the Army and Navy on battlefronts all over the world. Mrs. Winebrenner says electric fans will help make the workrooms more comfortable.

Work schedules have not been interrupted by the heat wave.

Walter Trostle sold 41,159 stamps to climb closer to sixth place for the 75 weeks, while J. Henry Hershey, Cashtown carrier sold 22,631 stamps to hold down second place with 304,249 stamps sold so far.

4 Weeks' Sales

Lancaster Spanks York Nine 17 To 1

(By The Associated Press)

Maybe, before the season is over, they'll be comparing Lancaster of the Interstate league with Connie Mack's Athletics.

The Red Roses battered York, 17 to 1, in the only league contest Wednesday night. The best Athletics could do was a 9 to 2 victory over Trenton in an exhibition game at Jersey City.

Lancaster's 20-hit barrage was climaxed in the fourth when nine runs, including a homer by Greenwald, crossed the plate. Norman Shrope, who replaced Wayne Johnson, gave up two runs in each of the next two innings but held the Red Roses scoreless thereafter.

The Athletics touched George Hennessey for 11 hits in five innings and newcomer Pat Defelice for four in the remainder of the game. Rookies Bernie Kucinski, Everett Fagan and Tom Clyde allowed four hits for Philadelphia.

INDIANS LOSE TO BROWNS AND HIT 7TH PLACE

By JUDSON BAILEY
The Associated Press

The club that wins the one-run games wins the pennant in the National league according to the old sages of the senior circuit.

This diverting aspect of victory came in for considerable attention last year as the St. Louis Cardinals started streaking down the home stretch. From early August till the end of the season the Redbirds played 15 games which were decided by one run and they won 14 of them.

The Cardinals still are playing their games tight and they still are winning most of them, although naturally enough their mark this spring doesn't compare with last autumn.

Half-Game Lead

Discounting a pair of tie games, the Cardinals have had 24 of their 41 contests this season settled by one run and they have triumphed in 14 of the 24.

In comparison the Brooklyn Dodgers have played 18 games decided by one run and have lost 11 of them. Cincinnati has won 8 out of 15 in the same category.

The Cardinals had another one of these close contests Wednesday, the day's only fracas in the National league, and they captured it in the manner to which they have become accustomed, 4-3 over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

This gave the Cards a half game margin over the second place Dodgers, who were kept idle by weather conditions.

Sox Beat Tigers

In the American league the first place New York Yankees also were idle, but the Washington Senators lost ground nevertheless by dropping a 3-2 decision to the Boston Red Sox.

The Detroit Tigers slipped out of third place by losing a 3-1 verdict to the Chicago White Sox in spite of seven-hit pitching by Hal Newhouser. All three Chicago counters were scored in the first inning and were unearned.

The Cleveland Indians ran into the day's worst ambush, however. On returning to their own park for the first time in two weeks they were beaten 6-0 by the last place St. Louis Browns and stumbled in to seventh place in the standings.

Davey Plank Wins Ping Pong Honors

Davey Plank, air cadet candidate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Plank, York street, is the champion ping pong player of the 39th College Training Detachment stationed at Presbyterian college, Clinton, South Carolina.

Plank won the honors in a recent tournament in which 60 soldiers participated.

"Wing Spread," a publication of the detachment, recently carried the following article:

"C-C David Plank of class D-2 came through with top honors of the ping pong tourney. Playing against the excellent competition of C-C Vernon Peterson, C-C Jordon Nickols and C-C Raymond Pettit, he finally defeated them in a spectacular finish.

"C-C Vernon Peterson stated that C-C Plank's unusual technique of changing his paddle from his right hand to his left with great ease and speed accounted for the defeat of his adversaries."

Phillies To Have Weekly Newspaper

Philadelphia, June 11 (AP)—And now the Phillies, who have tried practically everything else this season, are going into the newspaper business.

Reporting an avalanche of inquiries from service men about team personnel, the club announced Thursday it will issue "The Core-board" each week starting June 15.

The miniature newspaper, available to friends and relatives of service men for remailing, will contain news of other ball clubs and other sports besides recording the Phillies' progress.

GIFT FOR LIONS HEAD AT FINAL CLUB MEETING

Club activities of the last year were reviewed by President William A. Beales at the weekly dinner session of the Gettysburg Lions club as the service clubs head presided at his last meeting before entering active duty with the U. S. Navy.

President Beales, whose term as president does not expire until July 5, was accepted for active duty with the Navy last Friday and became the fifth member of the local Lions club to enter the service. Four others—Major John S. Rice, Major Stewart Moyer, Lt. Donald M. Swope and Private Lee M. Hartman, an officer candidate—are serving in the Army.

Beales was presented with a past president's pin by Secretary G. W. Lefever while the club members gave him a navy furlough bag. A similar bag—in khaki—will be sent to Private Hartman who entered Army service last Friday.

Volunteer Donors

Twenty-two members of the club attended the session at Mrs. Smith's restaurant and heard club progress and accomplishments for the last year reviewed. A net gain of five members has been recorded during the year, he said, while the club's gifts to community projects totaled about $120 in addition to funds used in the purchase of seven pairs of glasses for needy children.

Outstanding programs during the year were listed and he mentioned the two community-wide distribution of food baskets by the club at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Beales said 90 per cent of the club members volunteered as blood donors and 50 per cent for duty as airplane spotters.

The Lions will elect officers next Monday.

PEA HARVEST IS UNDERWAY

Harvest of the commercial pea crop in Adams county has begun and the first loads of peas in the vines were received Wednesday afternoon at the Burgoon and Yingling canning plant here. The canner operated for several hours and was scheduled to run again this afternoon with the wet weather slowing the harvest schedule.

Wet weather already has caused some damage to the pea crop, farmers said, and in some instances the fields are being cut in patches because some sections are too wet to enter.

The size of the crop depends largely upon the weather during the next week or two, farmers said. If the skies clear and the rains stop, a good crop is expected but if the showers continue the yellowing of vines will continue and pods will not develop to good size, it was explained.

Harvest of the pea crop probably will extend through the month of June, it was said at the canning factory here this morning. Canning plants in the Littlestown area also are starting their pea season.

ROAD OILING STARTS SOON

Oiling of about 50 miles of county highways will begin within the next week or 10 days, J. William Kendelhart, Jr., county superintendent of highways said today.

The 50 miles are made up of a number of short stretches in various roads of the county that have gone bad during the last two years and are being re-surfaced by application of oil and stone chips this summer. There will be no new road building in the county until Victory, Superintendent Kendelhart said.

State highway workmen found the heat wave gave them plenty to do prior to starting on the oiling. During last week the crews have been busy repairing buckled concrete slabs in the Hanover, Emmitsburg and Harrisburg roads and the Lincoln highway west of Gettysburg. The heat caused the concrete to expand beyond the maximum expansion allowed in constructing the roads. Some repairs were also made on a section of concrete surface on the Lincoln highway east of Gettysburg.

CITIZENS ASK FLOOD RELIEF AND BOROUGH ORDERS SURVEY

Expressing full sympathy with the position of nine local residents who appeared before borough council Monday evening to ask immediate and effective steps to prevent another flooding of their properties by the Tiber, members of council ordered an immediate survey of the Tiber channel with recommendations and cost estimates to be submitted at the July meeting of council.

The survey will be made by Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner in consultation with engineers from the State Department of Forests and Waters who will be asked to help solve the local problem.

The probable size and cost of the undertaking was hinted at by Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer who told the complaining citizens that the law imposes limits on council's spending powers and said the Tiber project might involve such cost that a special bond issue would be required in which case the voters of the town would have to pass on the spending of such a sum of money.

Probable Changes

Mr. Winebrenner's survey will produce figures on the cost of deepening the Tiber channel—possibly by three feet—along its entire length through the town, cleaning the channel, building retaining walls and lowering present walls to conform with the new, deeper channel, and other improvements that may be involved.

President H. M. Oyler called upon the visitors who circled the meeting room as soon as the reading of the minutes of the May meeting was disposed of.

First to speak was John W. McIlhenny, Carlisle street. He said the Tiber channel is too narrow, causing the flood waters to back up and flood properties bordering the stream. He had three feet of water in his cellar during the last flood on the night of May 26, he added.

"What, How Soon?"

Fred Hummelbaugh, who resides along the Tiber on Buford avenue, asked the council what they intend to do about the Tiber—and how soon. Water flowed under his front door the night of May 20, damaged a work shop and furnace in the basement of his home, washed fences away and deposited mud and filth on his property, he declared. "I'm a taxpayer and it's up to the town to do something to relieve conditions along the Tiber. Conditions are getting worse every year. The Tiber is filled with filth."

He declared the point at which the Tiber flows under the silk mill is a "bottleneck" that is narrower than bridges above it. When the matter was brought before council in 1940, only promises to remedy the situation were secured, Hummelbaugh said. He asked "assurance that the matter will be dealt with promptly in an efficient and adequate manner."

Then President Oyler assured him that council "will do something." How soon it can be done and how effective it will be because of financial limitations could not be stated immediately, the president said.

Other Complaints

Glenn L. Bream, whose Buford avenue garage, was flooded May 20, questioned whether widening and deepening the channel will be sufficient to solve the flood problem. He declared the whole matter is "a big engineering problem" and urged that the necessary engineering talent be secured.

F. T. Willet, West Middle street, complained about flood conditions from the Tiber in his neighborhood and C. W. Ruffe, a neighbor of Mr. Willet reported on flood conditions May 20. They said raw sewage enters the Tiber in that section.

President Oyler assured the men that every member of council "wants to help you." He promised to make a study of the situation and advise them of progress made in the matter. "We'll do the best we can," he concluded.

John Irvin, East Water street, reported on flood and drainage problems at his property and councilmen heard too of a manhole and section of sewer pipe along the Tiber east of North Stratton street that soon will be swept away unless action is taken promptly.

The only power shovel in Gettysburg is being used on another job for six weeks, President Oyler told councilmen.

All related drainage problems presumably will be taken into account in Mr. Winebrenner's survey, it was said.

Former Head Of Class Dies Today

The Rev. Dr. J. Hamilton Smith, 65, one time president of the former Gettysburg Classis of the Reformed church, died early Tuesday morning in Pottstown of a heart attack.

Illness forced him to step aside last February as pastor of the Trinity church at Pottstown, where he had served since 1912.

Doctor Smith was born in Sharpsburg, Maryland, and ordained in 1902, after being graduated from Mercersburg academy, Franklin and Marshall college and the Theological seminary of the Reformed church.

His first pastorate was at Altoona in 1905. At various times he served as president of the Gettysburg, Juniata and Goshenhoppen Classes.

DAR SELECTS DELEGATES TO STATE SESSION

Members of the Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at their June meeting, last Friday afternoon, heard reports on the recent sessions of the 52nd Continental Congress of the national DAR at Cincinnati and elected 10 delegates and 10 alternates to represent the chapter at the annual meeting of the state DAR at Wilkes-Barre in October.

Mrs. R. S. Saby, the chapter regent, presided at the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Albert A. Partner, East Middle street.

The following were selected as delegates to the Wilkes-Barre sessions: Mrs. M. K. Eckert, Miss Elizabeth Woods, Mrs. Walter H. Danforth, Mrs. C. E. Bilheimer, Mrs. Edgar L. Deardorff, Mrs. J. R. Riden, Mrs. G. W. Lefever and Mrs. Raymond F. Topper.

The alternate delegates are: Miss Alice Black, Mrs. John D. Lipsey, Sr., Mrs. John A. Mumper, Mrs. H. B. Benson, Mrs. Partner, Miss Grace Sachs, Mrs. C. Ross Shuman, Mrs. Roy E. Zinn, Mrs. A. Z. Rodgers and Miss Edna Zinn.

Written reports on the Continental Congress at Cincinnati were read by Mrs. Shuman and Mrs. Topper in the absence of Mrs. H. D. Sheppard, who represented the Gettysburg chapter at the Congress. Mrs. Sheppard was one of three women to be honored by election as honorary vice presidents general of the national DAR.

The reports stated that one of the war enterprises receiving special attention from the DAR has been the contribution of $76,759 for blood plasma work and for the purpose of establishing 15 blood receiving centers and the contribution of 32 mobile units and four station wagons to be used in the blood donor work of the Red Cross. Blood plasma equipment for Harrisburg alone cost the DAR $9,000. The national DAR gave $3,894 additional to other Red Cross activities.

Other Activities

The DAR chapters and members have pledged $33,150,646 in war bonds; gave $10,630 to the Marine hospital at Ellis Island; $22,825 for National Defense; over $3,000 for metal locators for use in determining the presence and position of bits of metal in wounded soldiers; gave $71,760 for schools in the mountains of the South; allocated $9,289 for Americanism projects, and $14,211 for historical research.

Resolutions were adopted asking that the study of civil government and American history be required courses of study in secondary schools and colleges. Other measures were adopted on questions of post-war planning and peace.

Other hostesses present Friday in addition to Mrs. Partner were Mrs. J. Kerr Lott and Miss Woods.

MORE GAS FOR SOME TRUCKERS

Carriers whose "vital operations" have been curtailed by the 40 per cent reduction in gas rations ordered May 27 may be able to obtain supplementary rations which will partially restore the cut. In order for a motor carrier to qualify for a supplemental allotment, he must be included in a preferential list which has been furnished to the ODT district offices by WPB.

The preferential industries are divided into four categories which are: AA-1, A-1, A-2, A-3, in accordance with the degree of essentiality for the war effort and prime civilian requirements. It is intended that trucks serving all the industries included in the four categories shall receive, where necessary, gasoline rations in addition to the reduced gasoline allowances, for truck operations necessary to the performance of the basic functions of the industries. There is no distinction between industries within any numerical priority classes. All A-1 are to be treated alike.

Where the supply of gasoline is inadequate for all of the needs of all of the industries included, lesser amounts may be given to the lower rated industries, but it is not intended that truck service be substantially withdrawn from any of these essential industries.

TO MARK 300TH ANNIVERSARY OF PENN'S BIRTH DIPLOMAS FOR 29 TUESDAY AT EAST BERLIN H.S.

Preliminary plans to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the birth of William Penn in which men of prominence in Delaware county are taking the initiative, are being discussed.

The first step in this direction was taken by State Senator Weldon B. Heyburn and Dr. Albert Cook Myers, outstanding authority on the life of Penn, at Myers' home, Kentmere Lodge, Moylan, where the feasibility of the project was discussed from many angles.

Senator Heyburn said he would confer soon with Governor Martin and ask his co-operation in making the proposed celebration one in keeping with the achievements of the state's famous founder. The last observance in connection with the life of the great Quaker was commemoration of the 250th anniversary of the landing of William Penn in America. This four-day celebration started October 24, 1932.

Plan Special Event

"Such a celebration should be timely and consistent on October 24, 1944, because at that time it is highly probable that post-war peace plans for the world will be under discussion," Senator Heyburn said.

"Therefore, it would be appropriate to observe the 300th birthday anniversary of the man who was the world's greatest peacemaker. I am interested, too, because Penn, after a brief stop at New Castle, Delaware, then came up the Delaware to Upland, now Chester, and spent his first night there at the home of Robert Wade.

"Although there is an act calling for observation of Penn's birthday, I believe the 300th anniversary should be a special event."

Penn Collection

Heyburn lives in a historic section of Delaware county. Before conferring with Myers he planted potatoes on his farm at Concorville. Along that very ground, along the Baltimore pike near Brinton Lake road, a part of the Battle of Brandywine was fought. The Senator is a direct descendant of Quaker settlers who came to Concorville.

Doctor Myers, who directed the celebration of the landing of Penn, and former secretary-director of the Pennsylvania State Historical Commission, is said to have the greatest collection of authentic documents and portraits of Penn in the world. This collection, all thoroughly classified, fills several rooms of his home. He has written several books regarding Penn, and as an official of the historical commission helped personally to mark many of the historic sites in various parts of the state.

Two of Doctor Myers' Quaker ancestors, Francis Fincher and Francis Standfield, sat in Penn's first assembly.

BACCALAUREATE FOR BIGLER H.S.

"Asking Questions," was the theme of the baccalaureate sermon delivered by the Rev. H. O. Sipe, pastor of the Biglerville United Brethren church, to the graduating class of Biglerville high school Sunday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Biglerville.

As a text he used the sixth verse of the ninth chapter of Acts, "Lord, what wouldst Thou have me do?" In his sermon the Rev. Mr. Sipe challenged the class to consider four main questions, "What shall I do with my life, the Bible, prayer and my talents?"

Miss Dorothy Sternat played as an organ theme from "Finlandia," by Sibelius; "Nocturne," by Frynsger and "Festial March," by Huhn. As a processional the hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," was sung by the congregation. The invocation and scripture lesson were given by the Rev. H. W. Sternat, pastor of the church. Mendelssohn's "If With All Your Hearts You Truly Seek Me," and "Send Forth Thy Spirit," by Schuetky, were sung by the Biglerville high school chorus. The benediction was given by the Rev. Mr. Sipe. The congregation sang "Onward Christian Soldiers" as the recessional. The postlude "March Brillante," by Lowden, was played by Miss Sternat.

TOP PRICE ON 450 ITEMS OF FOOD SET FOR ADAMS COUNTY

A survey Thursday showed that stores of Classes 1, 2 and 3 only are operating in Adams county. No retailers with gross sales over $250,000 (class 4) were reported in the county.

The top prices that any food store in Gettysburg and Adams county may charge for about 450 food items were announced Thursday by the OPA office. The new order was effective Thursday.

Every item on the new list must be clearly marked by every store keeper.

In addition every food store must post the class his store is in. For instance:

4 Store Classes

An independent retailer whose annual gross sales are less than $50,000 must post a sign in his store reading "OPA-1" meaning that this store is in Class 1.

An independent retailer with annual gross sales of $50,000 or more, but less than $250,000 must post a sign in his store reading "OPA-2" meaning that this store is in Class 2.

A non-independent store with annual gross sales of less than $250,000 must post a sign in his store reading "OPA-3" meaning that his store is in Class 3.

Any retail store with annual gross sales of $250,000 or more must post a sign in his store reading "OPA-4" meaning that this store is in Class 4.

Customers entering a store may learn at once what class the store is in and then will not be required to pay more than the maximum price, as posted and announced by the OPA for food listed under that class.

Some Reductions

Housewives will find some reductions but the variation is not considered to be exceptional.

General provisions of price regulations applying to retail sales remain in force. Stores which have customarily given sales receipts or slips to their customers must continue to do so. In addition, regardless of store practice, any customer who requests a receipt must be given one, showing the date of sale, the name and address of the store, the customer's name, each food item sold and the price charged for each.

To protect the customer against indirect price rises by being forced to buy unwanted merchandise in order to obtain food under community-wide ceilings, the provision is expressly set out that the seller "must not, as a condition of selling any food, require a customer to buy anything else."

Report Violators

The OPA further states "reports should be made to the local Rationing Boards or to the District Office (Harrisburg) concerning those who fail to comply with the price order or who appear to be deliberately in violation thereof."

Prices vary in most commodities according to the classification of a store. Stores in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th class are required to sell at lower ceiling prices than stores in the 1st class.

Varied Prices

For instance, one brand of peaches sells for 27 cents a can in a Class 1 store and 23 cents per can in Class 3 store. One brand of pears sells for 37 cents in Class 1 stores and 32 cents in Class 3 stores. Pine-apple juice sells for 40 cents in a Class 1 store and 34 cents in Class 3 store.

The variation in other items is not so severe. Green beans sell for 13 cents in a Class 1 store and 11 cents in a Class 3 store. Wax beans will sell for 16 cents in a Class 1 store and 13 cents in a Class 3 store. Lima beans sell for 20 cents in a Class 1 store and 17 cents in a Class 3 store. Corn sells for 16 cents in a Class 1 store and 14 cents in a Class 3 store. Peas sell for 20 cents in a Class 1 store and 17 cents in a Class 3 store. Tomatoes sell for 14 cents in a Class 1 and 12 cents in a Class 3 store. Tomato juice sells for 28 cents in a Class 1 store and 23

THE LESSER SERVICE
The country cannot give him back the life each soldier lends;
The sightless eyes, the shattered hips the future never mends.
The dead in foreign fields must lie and where may not be learned,
But money lent in freedom's cause with interest is returned.

They give their lives in freedom's name! For liberty they die!
They give the joy of growing old to keep the flag on high.
For can the nation make them whole or youth's lost strength restore.

But money spent in freedom's cause comes back with something more.

They give themselves, their hopes, their dreams and even though they live
In freedom's cause they've offered all that brave men have to give
And none of it can be returned. Unpaid such debts remain.
But money shared in freedom's cause comes back in full again.

QUATRAINS
GLORY
The road to glory's lined with mines
And barriers fearful, high and low,
And barriers fearful, high and low,
Where only brave men dare to go.

WAR-TIME HONEYMOON
Time was the honeymoon had waned
When he of coffee could complain,
But war-time moping, as a rule,
Scarce gives the coffee time to cool.

PARENTS IN WAR
The parents stay at home and pray
And at the windows watch to see
The postman coming down the way
And wonder what the news will be.

GARDEN TRUTH
The morning sun and gentle rain
Will fall upon the place in vain,
Unless man labors with the hoe
His garden lovely cannot grow.

SACRIFICE
There was a book he'd planned to write,
Which none will ever read.
He gave his life in one swift flight
To serve his country's need.
And there was one who might have found
A gentler way to fame.

He sleeps today in foreign ground;
Upon a cross, his name!
Who knows how great is freedom's price.

Or who can truly tell
The sum of all their sacrifice.
Who fought for truth, and fell?
But 'tis the glory and the pride
Of freedom's brave and bold.
For what is right they put aside
The joy of growing old.

They gave the books they might have penned
And all they might have done.
Choosing a lifetime's dreams to end
'Twixt dawn and set of sun.

EXAMPLE
How teach a lad the way to go
And all that's best to do and be?
There is no printed book to show
So well as conduct he can see;
No truer training he can get
Than the example others set.

The difference 'twixt right and wrong
Is surest learned upon the spot.
High preaching may not hold for long.

Fine writing soon may be forgot,
And who would teach a boy should show,
Not merely tell, the way to go.

Boys learn from action, good and ill.
Are quick to follow those who lead.
The pages men with counsel fill
Fall short of one inspiring deed.
A hero dares! The boys who see
As brave and true will want to be.

All parents know how soon the boy
Picks up the language of the street.
How soon the worst speech they employ
The child correctly will repeat.
Then who the minds of youth would reach
Themselves should keep the rules they teach.

Flashes Of Life

EXPENSIVE TOLL ROAD

ML. Vernon, Ind. (AP)—Gus Rose used the only road and bridges he could find during the recent midwestern floods, but in the end it brought him only grief.
Witnesses at a court hearing said the 32-year-old farmer borrowed an automobile, drove it 2½ miles down the Illinois Central Railroad tracks and across two trestles when the Wabash river inundated the regular highway.
He was convicted of malicious trespass and fined $25.

REWARD

St. Charles, Mo. (AP)—Peter J. Primeau, who recently filled his house with stray dogs to "save them from the dog catcher," has received official recognition of his role as friend of man's best friend. He was appointed dog catcher.

PETTY LARCENY

Philadelphia (AP)—Work slowed down at the Tasker Street War Housing project.
The contractor reported somebody stole his steam shovel, valued at $10,000.

WHAT, AGAIN?

Salt Lake City (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Swan read with eager interest yesterday the news they were parents of twin daughters.
They thought the item a bit unusual, though. The twins are now 21 years old.
The mixup, they learned, resulted from new birth certificates they'd obtained; they were dated 1943 instead of 1922.

BROKEN COMMANDMENT

Indianapolis (AP)—Mrs. John O'Connell told police her purse containing $70 had been stolen.
Where? Police wanted to know. In church, she said.

THE HARD WAY

Montreal, Ga. (AP)—Transportation difficulties mean nothing to Ben Gailaway, sophomore at Tulane University Medical school. He rode a bicycle from New Orleans to Moultrie, a distance of 570 miles. The trip took four days.

PRECIOUS FOOD

Bridgeport, Conn. (AP)—Bobby Lombard, 6, gulped, and it's a good thing he didn't swallow, when his teeth grated on a foreign object while he was eating applesauce. It was a $500 diamond which his mother had lost three days before from her ring.

GOVERNMENT DAY

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—Bob Garrison and Chuck Gerrish, partners in a neighborhood grocery store 11 years, are observing questionnaire day every week.
They close up shop every Monday to work on government reports and queries.

COME CLEAN, BOYS!

Philadelphia (AP)—When dump trucks filling in a housing project dribbled dirt down the middle of their block and verbal protests failed, 50 housewives joined hands in a human chain and blocked off the street.

One driver got caught inside the chain and the women kept him prisoner until he cleaned up his dirt.

UNLIMITED SERVICE

Kansas City (AP)—Cpl. Reuben Morose, 28, was mildly amazed at his latest official notice.
It was from the draft board through which he had been inducted into the army a year ago—And it advised him he'd been classified 4-1.

KEYNOTE

Denver—Denver's first surprise trial blackout last night was 20 minutes late, in the downtown district.

The master siren, as a precaution, is kept locked—and no one could find the key.

REINFORCEMENTS

St. Joseph, Mo. (AP)—Rosecrans Field, of the Army Air Force transport command, will have two new units next month:
A contingent of WAACs, and a detachment of guard dogs.

MONOTONY

San Francisco (AP)—Ernie Peterson, 14, was elected president of his junior high school student body. Disputes over voting methods arose; he was elected again. And then a third time.

How did it feel to be elected president? "Oh, I'm used to it," said Ernie.

HE WON, ANYWAY

Kansas City (AP)—The State Supreme Court's decision affirming a $179,461.07 verdict for 382 present and former city employees seeking back pay brought some cheer to George Anderson, City hospital employee.

Some, but not much. . . . He'd sued for $300 and he got 92 cents.

PARA-SHOOTER

Kansas City (AP)—Parachute packs have become common among military luggage at the Union station, but baggage handlers are approaching them with caution now.

A recap scooped up a pack by the ripcord yesterday.
Clouds of white silk and shroud lines spiraled forth over lobby crowd.

HERE AND THERE

THE SEA WAS CALM SOMEWHERE

In the north Pacific as a small U. S. naval force patrolled the waters "on the lookout" for Jap ships. Every man was at his station, "on the alert," although the patrol had not sighted an enemy vessel for months.

Suddenly a Jap naval force of two heavy cruisers, two light cruisers, six destroyers and two transports sailed over the horizon and the Yankee seamen, rarin' for action almost shouted with glee as the U. S. force moved into action against the Japs.

It was not cold but it was a brisk day. . . great weather for a good sea fight and trouble for the Japs who have yet to win a sea engagement from the Yankees.

THE FORCE TORE AFTER THE JAPS.

One U. S. destroyer was ordered to "move in" for a torpedo attack and off she slipped at full speed and then she let loose a torpedo and then a second. Yankee planes had been summoned to the attack but at the first salvo from the surface ships the Japs turned tail and headed for home ports, although her force outnumbered the Yanks.

One Jap ship fired at long range and scored a hit on the fast approaching destroyer. The shell blew out the galley and killed five Yanks. Other Yank ships tore into the fight and for five hours it was Yank after Jap with shells bursting high and about.

The Japs were at some distance and finally, dispersing, managed to elude the Yanks. Yankee airmen scoured the area for miles but failed to find any trace of the Japs.

Aboard the destroyer that had her galley blown away was Norman W. Myers, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Myers, 322 West Middle street. He escaped unscathed.

Myers enlisted in the Navy December 27, 1941, 20 days after Pearl Harbor. He served at Newport, Rhode Island, and went to sea in May, 1942. Later he found himself with the Yank patrol outfit in the north Pacific and it was his destroyer that was ordered into the torpedo attack.

After the sea engagement Myers and other members of the destroyer's crew survived on apple juice and crackers for five days because they were unable to cook any food aboard ship with their galley blown to bits.

They put into an American port in the far north and for a day were fed from another ship. Then they spent two more days at sea enroute to another port for repairs. . . again subsisting on apple juice and crackers.

Despite this ordeal Myers put on weight and feels little the worse for the experience. He likes the Navy and is anxious to return to sea duty after enjoying a 20-day furlough at his home here. Myers says Yanks call Jap fliers "Float-Type Joe from Tokyo."

Incidentally, a Doctor Meredith, of Harrisburg, is the medical officer aboard Myers' destroyer.

Long distance signaling with the Morse code and some phases of "commando" training have recently been included in the list of activities of Boy Scout Troop 77, sponsored by the local Rotary and Lions clubs, a report by Scoutmaster Jack Cessna to members of the joint-club troop committee, Tuesday, showed.

Using single flags members of the troop have transmitted messages in Morse from the roof of the Cessna residence on Baltimore street to other scouts on Wolf hill nearly two miles away with the help of a telescope and a pair of binoculars. Cessna said. The "commando" training includes practice in traveling over rough terrain and rope work in climbing steep banks or rocky ledges.

Scoutmaster Cessna reviewed recent troop meeting programs that included guest speakers, trips to local industrial plants and special programs. Average attendance in the last two months increased from 16 to 19 scouts. One camping trip has been made and another was approved for early July.

Cessna said the next district court of honor has been set for June 28.

TRUCK UPSETS; 4 SOLDIERS HURT

Four soldiers were injured early Monday morning at Owings Mills, Maryland, when a Minter's store truck, driven by Glenn Minter, Gettysburg, overturned.

A spring on the truck is reported to have broken throwing the vehicle towards a telephone pole at the side of the highway. Minter stepped on the brakes to stop the truck and it overturned. The soldiers were riding in the body of the truck. They were removed to the University hospital, Baltimore, and later three were released while the fourth was removed to the camp hospital at Aberdeen. The names of the soldiers, said to be stationed at Camp Meade, could not be immediately learned.

Missed Bus Ride
Minter is said to have permitted the group of 13 soldiers to ride in the truck when they were seeking a ride from Gettysburg to Camp Meade where they were to report at 5 a. m. Monday morning. They said they had failed to make bus connections in Gettysburg.

Baltimore county police investigated. Minter was detained at Pikeville until about 11 a. m. Monday while the injuries of the soldiers were being determined.

Budgets of Germany, Latimore, Menallen, Reading, Union, Cumberland and Conewago townships and East Berlin were ordered returned to the various secretaries in order that they might revise the budgets in accordance with the recent increase of teachers' salaries.

Assistant Superintendent Bream reported on the recent high school entrance examination given eighth grade students in the county while Richard C. Lighter, Vocational Education Advisor for the county reported on the Adult Farm Repair work course and the home canning project sponsored by East Berlin high school during the summer months. His report also disclosed that 12 out-of-school youth classes were held in the various high school centers during the past year. Gets Letter From Soldier In Tunisia

Smith, who fought in Tunisia described the end of the battle in Africa in a letter to Miss Mildred Adams, East Lincoln avenue. Smith is a neighbor of Miss Adams' parents at Stafford.

"Well we did it again and we will do it once more," Smith wrote. "Them Jerrys were a happy bunch to be able to surrender to us Yanks. They came in by the thousands without a guard around at all. They were singing 'Roll Out the Barrel' as they marched along. A truck loaded with them broke down where we were parked and they gave us candy, cigars and pickles.

"We had a great time jabbering with them.

"The French and Arabs were a happy crowd returning to what was left of their homes. An old boy and myself got in one family of fourteen girls and had so much fun drinking all the wine we wanted that we almost got left behind. They lived right on the beach at Lake Bizerte. Also went swimming in the Mediterranean.

"I went through four major phases of this war and have seen most of it at its worst. Hope I can come through the next part as lucky. I sure have learned a lot of tricks from these Jerrys. They are full of them."

Work on the museum and vault in the court house for the Adams County Historical society has been completed. County Commissioners' Clerk Clarence C. Smith revealed Friday, and members of the society said that historical relics and furnishings may be placed before the next meeting of the society in September.

The smaller room, 10 by 17 feet, will be used as a vault for the protection of valuable relics of the county's early history.

Both rooms were previously used to store materials used in the court house. Concrete floors have been placed and painted tan. The foot-thick stone walls of the two rooms have been plastered and lights have been installed.

The vault is completely fireproof. Its ceiling is the floor of the vault in the prothonotary's office, while all walls are of stone. There are no windows into the vault. A double steel door removed from a former vault at the court house has been installed in the vault.

Furniture Factory Employees Set Record

Employees of Gettysburg's three furniture factories, The Reaser Furniture company, Gettysburg Furniture company and the Gettysburg Panel company, still adhere to their original war bond-purchasing plan set up prior to the government's payroll-savings plan and are doing it in full-fashion "win-the-war" spirit.

According to a recent compilation of bond purchases it was revealed that 81 per cent of all the employees of the three plants purchase war bonds on their own instituted payroll plan.

Other War Activities

Employees at the Gettysburg Panel company are enrolled 100 per cent under the plan, a commendable record for the company.

FFA MEMBERS GIVEN PUREBRED PIGS TO FEED

Plans for general improvement of the pig population of the county based on the gift of 12 purebred Hampshire gilts to as many FFA chapter members were discussed last Thursday night at a meeting of the county agricultural education advisors at East Berlin.

The gilts will be given to two members of the FFA clubs at Biglerville, Gettysburg, Arendtsville and East Berlin. One member from each of the Fairfield, Littlestown, York Springs and New Oxford clubs will receive a pig.

The swine are being presented to the county youths by the Sears and Roebuck foundation with the provisions that a controlled feeding program, to be drawn up by the school agricultural education advisors, be employed for the pigs and that out of each litter the FFA advisor may select the best gilt for breeding purposes to be given to another member of FFA.

The eight-week-old pigs were distributed Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at Gettysburg high school. The gilts are worth between $40 and $50 apiece.

Adopt Feed Program

Most of the agricultural education teachers stated they were in favor of a 4-3-2-1 feeding program of four parts corn, three of oats, two of wheat and one of a supplement including tankage, linseed oil meal and alfalfa leaf meal. Later the feeding ratio of corn will be cut down to prevent the pigs from becoming too fat, and will be built up again when they reach breeding stage.

The agriculture teachers also suggested that the boys put the pigs out to pasture if possible. The pigs must be kept separate from other swine on the farm.

The FFA heads discussed the possibility of having one of the chapters purchase a purebred Hampshire boar to be paid for by service fees from breeding. At a later date the Hampshire would be sold and another purebred boar secured, it was decided.

To Attend Banquet

The 12 youngsters will be entertained at a dinner for FFA youngsters receiving the pigs in York, Adams and Lancaster counties to be given June 15 at the York YMCA.

All FFA clubs of the county have paid dues to the state FFA, it was announced. An inventory of the tools and machines purchased by the government for the night classes held in the county schools was presented.
